NEARLY HUNDRED TALESMEN EXAMINED

W. E. Young Will Be Foreman Of Jury—Accepted On Tuesday

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

COURTHOUSE, LONG ISLAND CITY, N. Y., April 20.—The second juror in the Snyder-Gray murder trial was chosen this morning. He was Charles B. Meissner, a landscape gardener of Springfield, Queens.

Meissner, second of the 12 men who will decide the fate of Mrs. Ruth Snyder and Henry Judd Gray, corset salesman, accused of the murder of the woman's husband, Albert Snyder, was escorted to a seat behind William E. Young, foreman of the jury.

Meissner and Young grinned at each other as Meissner took his seat.

Meissner was the 91st talesman to be examined.

With two jurors selected, examination of the talesmen proceeded monotonously, one after another being excused for having a fixed opinion or for opposing capital punishment.

The high-priced writers assembled in great numbers to "cover" the trial settled back in their chairs as the proceedings dragged on. One or two of the phychologists and criminologists slipped out of their seats and left the courtroom. There was little to "expert" about.

Mrs. Margaret Gray, mother of Henry Judd Gray, sat about 20 feet from the confessed slayer and busied herself with notes on a paper held in her lap. Her writing was believed to be one of her nu-

Secret Executions Mark Warfare In China, Is Report

By ALFRED MEYER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

SHANGHAI, April 20—While reports come of a drive against Chiang Kai Shek by the Hankow branch of the nationalist movement there is every indication here that Chiang intends to proceed ruthlessly with the extermination of the extremists within his ranks.

Secret executions are proceeding nightly at the Lunghwa headquarters and prior to daybreak today there were six alleged extremists executed, which it is said brings the total of executions of alleged radicals to more than a hundred, including some of the leading officers of the general labor and other unions, who were declared to be back of the recent strike.

There is actual war on one front today, with the possibility of civil war among the nationalists on an-

Motor Club After Hit-Run Drivers

Standing Reward Offer Is Made By Motor Club Of City

Hit-And-Run Drivers Are Not To Be Tolerated In New Castle

In an effort to curb the increasing number of hit-and-run drivers in New Castle, the New Castle Motor club today makes a standing offer of $25 to any man, woman or child who turns in to the club the license number of any driver who has a collision and does not stop to render assistance.

The offer was made public by the manager of the New Castle Motor club, B. N. Hanlon, who in explaining the offer of reward said "The hit-and-run driver is a menace to every decent automobile driver. He is a potential murderer and the New Castle Motor club wants to assist in bringing to justice these automotive birds of prey. Every week there are cars hit by reckless drivers and in the excitement of the moment the injured driver does not get the number. Any by-stander who sees the fleeing motorist can get $25 by turning in his number to us, and we in turn will communicate it to the authorities."

The offer of the New Castle Motor club is the beginning of a campaign against the hit-and-run motorist in this city. It is a movement that should be joined in by the authorities and all drivers who want to make the streets and roads safe.

Commits Suicide In Train Compartment

Berlin Manager Of I. N. S. Ends Life; Has Nervous Breakdown

(International News Service)

BREMEN, Germany, April 20.—As the result of a nervous breakdown, S. Dunbar Weyer, for the past six years manager of the International News Service bureau in Berlin, shot and killed himself in a compartment on the Berlin-Bremen Express early today.

Weyer was on his way to Bremen to embark for the United States. He was accompanied by H. R. Knickerbocker, Moscow correspondent of the International News Service, who had recently relieved Weyer in Berlin.

Knickerbocker and Weyer were in conversation until 3 o'clock this morning, when Weyer was apparently in good spirits and he explained to Knickerbocker that he desired to write some letters and Knickerbocker went to his own compartment. On the arrival of the train at Bremen at 6 a. m. the conductor found Weyer's body in the compartment with a bullet through the temple. The conductor stated that Weyer had mailed many letters when the train stopped at Hannover.

Weyer left the following note:—"Official explanation—nervous breakdown—seven years without a vacation. 5:20 a. m."

Weyer's body will probably be removed to the home of his parents at Hamburg.

A wife and two children survive.

Weyer, prior to going to Berlin, had been for many years engaged in newspaper work in the United States, having worked in Milwaukee, Washington and New York.

(International News Service)

CHICAGO, April 20.—Between 20 and 25 dead, more than 100 seriously injured and property damage estimated in millions, was the toll today of a series of tornadoes that raced over the south central portion of Illinois late yesterday.

An accurate check on the list of dead and injured is impossible until lines of communication, torn down by the death-dealing winds, are restored.

Greatest Loss Of Life.

The greatest loss of life occurred in the Springfield district in the central part of the state. Buffalo Hart, ten miles northeast of Springfield, reported eight dead and a score injured. Six were killed at Loami, thirteen miles southwest of Springfield.

Renomination Of Coolidge Is Seen By Aged Citizen

Depew To Observe 93rd Birthday Anniversary On Saturday

DECLARES COOLIDGE WOULD BE RE-ELECTED

Says Smith's Statement On Church-State Has Added To His Strength

BY DAVID P. SENTNER
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 20.—Chauncey M. Depew, who celebrates his ninety-third year of youthful thoughts next Saturday, today predicted that Calvin Coolidge would be unanimously renominated by the Republican party for president in 1928.

"And if Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, opposes Coolidge the latter will be re-elected," America's grand old man and former Republican senator asserted in his annual birthday interview with the press.

Increases Prestige.

Depew said that Governor Smith's reply to Charles C. Marshall on his attitude toward the Roman Catholic church and the U. S. constitution had strengthened Smith's prestige enormously and had put him in a far more favorable position for the Democratic presidential nomination than he was in 1924.

The aged ex-senator, despite his usual exhibition of agile thinking, appeared weak. He was suffering from an attack of bronchitis and his voice was husky and at times his words were unintelligible. For the first time in 35 years, he will not attend the annual public birthday banquet in his honor which was scheduled by friends.

Mae West Begins Ten Day's Term

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 20. — Mae West, co-author and star of the raided play "Sex," today begins serving a ten day sentence in the workhouse on Welfare Island.

Miss West, James A. Timoney, a financial backer of "Sex", and Clarence W. Morganstern, producer of the play, were all sentenced to ten days after having been found guilty of producing an immoral play. In addition Judge George L. Donnellen, of the Court of General Sessions, fined Miss West and Timoney $500 each.

Miss West, it was said, would be given work in the laundry at the workhouse. Counsel for the plump, blond star applied for a writ of reasonable doubt, preliminary to an appeal, but it was refused by Judge Donnellan.

State Party Advancing On City Day By Day

City by city, Doc Jordan, or rather Dr. Charles G. Jordan, secretary of agriculture, and his party of corn borer experts are moving towards New Castle. Thursday night they are in Sharon and Friday the group comes to New Castle for a monster mass meeting in the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

While Dr. Jordan and Dean McDowell are appearing in each of the cities on the itinerary, New Castle will be specially honored with the appearance of State Treasurer Samuel Lewis, the man who juggles Pennsylvania's millions each year and does it well.

No Collections.

The corn borer meeting in the cathedral Friday night should attract 3000 people. Men and women, farmer and city man all should be there for the meeting is of vital importance to all. There is no admission, and Harry Fullerton who will be the chairman of the evening has promised there will be no collections taken.

The meeting is absolutely free of all cost, all that is asked that every man and woman interested in the progress of their state of Pennsylvania be present and hear men who are thoroughly familiar with their subject.

While Dr. Jordan and Dean McDowell will dwell upon the corn borer, it is hardly likely that State Treasurer Lewis will. He is not a farmer, but he knows the needs of the farmer in a financial way. He is an able speaker who speaks the language of the common folks and his address alone is well worth hearing.

The Grangers are enthusiastically supporting the meeting Friday night, the civic clubs are back of it, and everybody outside of these two groups should be just as enthusiastic. It is an opportunity to see and hear some of our own state officials and it is to be hoped that it will be taken advantage of.

Hewitt Defense To Build Up Alibi For Youthful Murderer

Defense Counsel Claims Witnesses To Prove Not At Brown Home

(International News Service)

JEFFERSON, Ohio, April 20.—Efforts today were to be directed by the Floyd Hewitt defense toward the building up of an alibi for the 16-year-old defendant, on trial for his life, for the murder of Fred Brown, Jr., 5, at Conneaut February 14.

D. F. Dunlavy, chief of counsel for the accused youth, said a sufficient number of witnesses would be produced to show Hewitt was not at the Brown home the night Mrs. Celia Brown and her little son were slain. Hewitt is under indictment charged with the murder of Mrs. Brown also.

The alibi is to be pieced together bit by bit, by the testimony of various witnesses who will account for the boy's presence elsewhere than at the Brown home early evening of February 14 until the following morning, Dunlavy declared.

That the trial would run into the fourth week was indicated today, in view of the number of witnesses the defense plans to use.

Real Shamrock In The News Office

Last winter a friend of ours who is visiting in Scotland, sent us a package of Shamrock seed. Along in February we took it down to Harry Good's Gladhaven place in Enon Valley and he planted the seed. This morning he brought the result to this office. The pot of plants is now on exhibition and those who want to see the shamrock as she actually grows can have that pleasure. We would like to have some of the honest-to-goodness old-fashioned Irish see this display. Come in and see them. They are in the lobby of this office and there is plenty of room for all.

LOS ANGELES, April 20.—The body of Ray Raymond, musical comedy star, awaited an autopsy in the morgue today. Paul Kelly, juvenile screen star, was held in jail on a charge of suspicion of murder, and Dorothy Mackaye, Raymond's wife and a well known actress, was under a physician's care—the aftermath, according to police, of a love affair.

The wife, Dorothy Mackaye, has admitted her friendship for Kelly, a friendship her husband wished her to cease, according to police.

This friendship, according to the pretty young actress, was misinterpreted by her husband.

"Paul and I had been friends for years," she said. "We were kids together. It was a clean friendship."

Geasa Recovers Body Of Lowellville Youth Drowned In River

Alfred Rotz, aged 18, of 712 East Wood street, Lowellville, O., first bathing victim of the present year in that district, was drowned in the middle of the channel of the Mahoning river at Lowellville, O., on Tuesday afternoon while swimming with two boy companions.

His body was not recovered until about 11 o'clock today, when Edwin H. Geasa, swimming instructor of the Ben Franklin Junior High school, and a member of the American Red Cross life-saving corps and the Pittsburgh Post life-saving corps, rescued it from a hole in midstream, 30 feet from the scene of the drowning, with grappling hooks secured from the police station here.

The drowning occurred Tuesday afternoon and Youngstown city firemen were called on the job and worked until nine o'clock last night in an effort to secure the body.

A call was sent in here for Mr. Geasa, whose work as a life saver has become known far and wide, about 11 o'clock last night, and he went over this morning at six o'clock. As the water was dark, interfering with diving, Mr. Geasa, after some difficulty in securing a good boat, went out into midstream with the grappling hooks, and in 45 minutes had located and secured the body from an 11-foot hole something like 30 feet from the point the young man went down.

Seized with Cramps

Rotz, with three companions, went swimming for the first time this season, after eating a heavy meal. He was not an expert swimmer and was in the act of attempting to swim across the channel of the river when he was apparently seized with cramps and went down. The river is higher than usual and the current at the middle of the stream quite swift.

His three companions were Nick Dalch, Sam Palmer and Mike Treyeline. They had reached the opposite shore in safety, Rotz lagging behind. They heard his cries and Dalch and Palmer went to his rescue, but his struggles prevented his rescue and almost claimed their li

Will Rogers Chases Gloom For 3 Hours

It took three years to get Will Rogers to New Castle, but after hearing him Tuesday night in the Scottish Rite Cathedral, the answer is that it was worth all the trouble it took. For two and a half hours 1600 New Castle people sat and laughed at and with America's most famous comedian, applauded his skill with a lariat, and envied his facility with a mouth full of chewing gum.

Only years of practice could beget the proficiency with which he chews, and on a production basis, Rogers chewed out about 3 laughs to a revolution. Two and a half hours is a long time to sit and listen to anybody, but the fact that they wanted more when he finally did finish is some evidence as to their enjoyment of it.

Nobody Safe

Nobody was safe from his tongue, and nobody could get peeved, for with all his good natured bantering, there was no rancor, no offense, and the ones who might have fitted some of the caricatures enjoyed it with the ones who didn't

As you may know Will Rogers was all there was to the entertainment. That's all there used to be to the Follies, but a year or so ago he stepped out on his own, preferring to take all the gate receipts

Its fine to be gone for a couple of months and meet folks and learn what they are, its fun to be out in some other chap's town, and learn what his own ideas are. It broadens one out to get other ideas, to travel the state up and down, but the thrill of it all is the day you get back, to the folks who make up your home town. You really can't know what the home town folks mean, till you've been far away for a while, its then that you learn they're the best in the world, that they've learning and culture and style. You only can know how you like your own town, and the people, by going away, and when you get back, boy they sure look good, its cooler just sixty today.

be under way seeking an agreement to continue the trial with eleven jurors.

The court meanwhile continued an inquiry into the charges brought by Ford's attorneys against Mrs. Cora Hoffman, one of the woman jurors in the case. She was accused by the billionaire's counsel in a series of affidavits given the court of having fraternized with jews during the trial after previously declaring she would oppose the auto king if chosen for the jury.

The investigation also involved J. Miller, a jewish real estate salesman, who was named in the affidavits as having frequently conferred with Mrs. Hoffman during the trial. The Ford atorneys accused him of having sought to influence Mrs. Hoffman against the defendant although Mrs. Hoffman was said to have explained her conference with him as being questioned by judge Raymond, it was said, with department of justice agents present. Both were reported to have denied any discussion of the case.

DETROIT, April 20.—An air of mystery was thrown about the alleged jury scandal in the $1,000,000 Ford-Sapiro libel suit today when Mrs. Cora Hoffman, one of the women jurors in the case, was again brought to the federal building for questioning.

Accompanied by her husband, Mrs. Hoffman, who is accused by Ford's attorneys of expressing antipathy towards the motor king, was secretly grilled by Department of Justice agents.

Neither the agents nor attorneys in the suit would discuss the latest development in the alleged scandal.

Town Talk

New Castle's pre-summer heat wave which was in existence for several days was broken last night. Temperature on Tuesday afternoon got as high as 82 at the News thermometer on Mercer street. Last night weather conditions were like mid-summer. A slight rain fell here, but a thunder and lightning storm could be noticed south of the city, which probably was a factor in weather change. Conditions today are about normal for April.

the homeless. The refugees fled in all directions, seeking high points out of the water's reach.

The break caused a territory 60 miles back of the Mississippi to be visited by the floods, advices stated.

Appeals for Aid

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 20.—Appeals for aid today emphasized the seriousness of the Mississippi river flood—the greatest in its history—which has engulfed nearly 3,000,000 acres of farm lands and rendered 25,000 homeless.

The Red Cross and other relief organizations declared that the homeless flood sufferers, crowded in refugee camps in a dozen towns and cities in Arkansas, Kentucky and Tennessee, are badly in need of food and clothing.

Destruction Continues

Meanwhile the raging Mississippi continues on its path of destruction, aided by its tributaries.

The main Mississippi levee at New Madrid, Mo., littered with breaks over a 10-mile area, was letting the waters rush into the rich Saint Francis river basin, slowly engulfing a territory 100 miles long and inundating probably 75 towns and villages.

Hundreds living in the Saint Francis basin fled to higher ground during the night, many dragging household furnishings and personal belongings.

Secure for the moment in the refugee camps, flood sufferers could do nothing but sit down and wait for the Mississippi to reach its crest and then slowly recede.

Dr. I. N. McCash At First Christian

President Of Phillips University, At Enid, Okla., In City Next Sunday

Dr. I. N. McCash, president of Phillips university at Enid, Okla., will speak in the First Christian church of this city next Sunday morning. Dr. McCash will tell something of his work in the southwest. He will not occupy the sermon hour, but will confine his remarks to the closing session of the Bible school.

On April 29, under the direction of Mrs. H. D. Taylor, the Sunday school will be entertained as a concluding feature of the contest which was held over a period of weeks. Mrs. Taylor is making special arrangements for a splendid program and a great time of fellowship on this occasion.

Easter Sunday was the greatest day in the history of the church. Between 1000 and 1200 were present in the morning, 966 were on time at the Bible school hour. There were 103 persons signed up as members of the church; 200 men were present in Rev. Holcomb's Booster class. A loose offering of approximately $400 was taken for benevolent work.

In the evening there was a capacity audience to hear the Easter cantata "The Resurrection" by the choir under the direction of Richard E. Johns.

Plans are now being made for a reception for new members, the time to be announced soon.

He took his audience to Europe with him, described his audience with Mussolini, discussed United States intervention in Nicaragua, China and Mexico, took a few verbal shots at politics and politicians, described his visit to the White House and with all his tomfoolery interjected some philosophy that will sink in after the audience has recovered from its paroxysms of chuckles.

Will Rogers will be remembered in New Castle, for his wit, for his ability with a lariat, and for his ability to take people out of the humdrum of ordinary affairs of life and for a whole evening give them something that will make them laugh. We hereby nominate him for a doctor's degree, a Doctor of Laughter, with a license to practice in any country of the world.

Accuse Youths Of Attack Upon Brookville Girl

(International News Service)

PUNXSUTAWNEY, Pa., April 20.—Albert Holles, 21, of Reynoldsville, and Charles Wyant, 21, of Numine, were lodged in the county jail at Brookville, near here, today, charged with a statutory crime in connection with an alleged attack upon a 21-year-old Brookville hospital nurse.

According to county authorities the youths were arrested after the girl was returned from an automobile ride in a serious condition, and she and a girl companion told police they had been forced to accompany two young men to a small mining camp near here, where one of the girls was attacked.

The girls, whose names were withheld, told police they were dragged into a small coupe by two youths and forced to accompany them on the ride. One girl told police she managed to escape, and returned with aid, only to find the youths and the nurse gone.

The girl was brought to the Brookville hospital door, she said, and is reported in a serious condition there today.

SECRET EXECUTIONS MARK WARFARE IN CHINA, IS REPORT

other front and continual internal strife in the ranks of both branches of the nationalist movement.

Fighting Near Pukow.

Chiang Kai Shek's forces are still reported engaging with the northern troops in the vicinity of Pukow.

Hankow reports that General Feng Yuh Siang has been named to succeed Chiang and is preparing to throw his forces into the field. The military ruler of Honan, General Feng, is reported to have been ordered to move his troops against Nanking.

The warfare may become more complicated from now on, particularly if General Feng attempts to move his forces into Hankow. At present his armies of some 80,000 men are cut off from Hankow by Chang Tso Lin's forces. There are now possibilities of Chang Tso Lin and his allies having to face warfare on more than one front. It is doubtful whether Feng can move more than 40,000 active troops, since his forces are now widely scattered.

The forces in Honan, which are available for a drive against Nanking, are also doubtful, for Chang Tso Lin has been engaging these troops.

May Form Alliance.

Observers here are of the opinion that Chiang Kai Shek can hold his own against the extremist faction of Hankow, and if hard pressed he always has the opportunity of forming an alliance with the northerners.

The sentiment against the extremist faction in Hankow has been growing here of late and a mass meeting of anti-communists held today, attended by thousands of all classes, has passed resolutions demanding that Chiang Kai Shek arrest and punish the communist leaders of Hankow for hindering the drive against the northerners and for withholding funds. Severe criticism of the Hankow leadrs for allying themselves with the soviet government is heard.

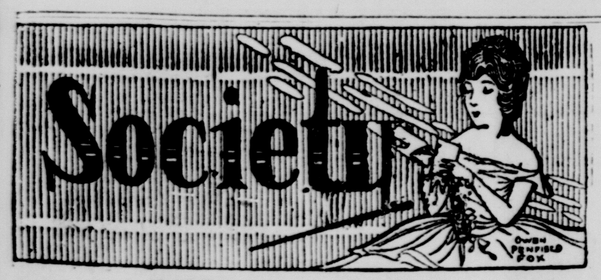

The anti-communist sentiment is reported increasing in Canton also, where there have been numerous clashes in anti-communist raids.

The situation in Shanghai is now sufficiently quiet to make it possible for the demobilization of the volunteer corps. The special police have been partially demobilized.

THE BOOTSTRAP CULT

FROM reading the magazine advertisements of today one can not fail to obtain the impression that the whole-wide-world and everything in it is free, that success in any form is to be had by anyone who has enough ambition to fill out a coupon and that there is no excuse in the world for being poor, sick, unattractive or anything else that people find it desirable not to be.

This bootstrap philosophy once went by the mysterious title of transcendentalism and was preached by Emerson and Kant. There was some inspiration in the old philosophy and there is some in the advertisements of the new, but far apart are their purposes. The new "get-there" cult is a business venture run for profits for its "prophets."

The bootstrap cult is widely spread and multitudinously voiced and has developed quietly but strongly out of deep places. It is up on all the newest science and ologies. Psychology is its fountainhead, and behind it trail psychiatry, psychoanalysis, glands and a varied assortment of curious information about almost everything. There is no end to the exasperating nomenclature of the thing and no doubt that it is the product of deep breathing and deep thinking.

And all of this grand mixture of liberated knowledge and fermenting idealism has been reduced by the aforesaid pink-ribbon salesmanship into rose-colored optimisms of the most tantalizing attractiveness and is sold in all markets at prices that amaze and astonish.

It is readily recognized wherever encountered by such intriguing and electrifying propositions as "It Is Free," "Big Business Is Looking For You," "You Too Can Earn $10,000 a Year," "Beauty For The Asking." Its forms are many and its proselytes illimitable. The quack doctor of yesterday capitalized on the public's fear of sickness and death. The new success doctor is capitalizing on the public's fear of poverty and social ostracism. With the new as with the old the doctor is the only one who wins.

But the public can be thankful to the advertisements of the bootstrap philosophers for revealing, through their own numbers and apparent prosperity, the great numbers of men and women who sincerely wish to help themselves and for keeping constantly before the public the idea of individual advancement.

LESSON FOR BROADWAY

WELL, Earl Carroll has started to prison; and Broadway, it is said, can't quite understand why he had to go.

There are two or three little things about this country that Broadway never will understand. Carroll's famous wine-bath party was a slap in the face of public decency, and the rest of the country understood it well enough even if Broadway didn't.

And the sentence that Carroll will serve is, we think, a pretty fair expression of what the country at large thought about the affair. Broadway to be sure, can't understand that, either; but perhaps it is beginning to understand that it has to abide by it, at all events.

It is permissible to feel rather sorry for Mr. Carroll. But we can't help thinking that the whole thing is rather a good thing for Broadway.

MAY ELIMINATE CUSTOM

IT LOOKS now as if presidential hand-shaking were in a fair way to be reduced to a sane minimum if not eliminated entirely. It is unfortunate that this reform could be effected only through actual injury to President Coolidge's wrist, which sustained a sprain at the Army and Navy reception in February. Yet suffering is sometimes more easily endured when good comes of it.

During the weeks of his enforced release from promiscous hand-shaking duties, it seems to have occurred to various persons that there is no need to resume them to such unlimited extent as formerly prevailed.

It was a democratic custom which may have been pleasant and easily carried out in former years. With the increase in our national population and the tremendous progress in transportation that makes it possible for vast hordes of that population to descend upon Washington, the pleasant custom has become a genuine burden to the chief executive. Only shortsighted and selfish citizens will bewail its passing.

The ideal way of getting along will never be realized by the idler.

Many persons do not seem to be ashamed to advertise the fact that they have made a failure of marriage.

In Day's News

Dr. V. K. Wellington Koo, whose name has received frequent mention in the despatches from China, is well known to many Americans by reason of his residence in New York during his student days and his subsequent return to Washington as Chinese minister to the United States. He is regarded as one of the ablest and most thoroughly educated in western knowledge of all the younger leaders of his nation. Dr. Koo won his doctorate degree at Columbia University, where he devoted himself especially to the study of political science and government. He resigned his post as minister to the United States in 1916, returning in 1921 as head of the Chinese delegation to the arms conference in Washington. Since last October he has been acting Premier and Foreign Minister of the Peking Government.

Hints and Dints

Sun sets tonight 6:44. Sun rises tomorrow 5:14.

A man who shot an editor in New York has been found sane, although he tried to make it appear that he was looney. We hope he finds out that it is a serious thing to plink an editor.

A labor leader from England is in this country and he is said to enjoy the respect and confidence of all classes save radicals of destruction. If he could also get the radicals to think well of him he would really be doing away with most of the troubles of laboring people. Those radical babies don't care for anything or anybody—and often not even for themselves.

There are people who will start a row in church if they cannot find some other place to start one. We have often thought that churches are not careful enough in selecting their members.

A boy out in Shenango township is bow-legged and his mother attributes it to the stupidity of his father, who used to swat flies on the kid's head when he was a baby.

An old-timer is one who can remember when every drummer awed the villagers by registering from New York.

Gov. Al. Smith of New York in a public statement declares that no religious views he has would keep him from being a regular and good president of the United States. We may grant him that, but he still has to overcome being wringing wet and being a Democrat in a hostile camp of his own Democrats. In our humble opinion he is a long distance from the presidency of the United States and we think he is a fine gentleman in many ways at that. It simply just Aint.

A thought for business men. Back of every business deal—large or small—must be the idea you are going to stay in the same place all your life and meet the some customers every day till you die.

You may travel the world over, visit every tropical and semi-tropical clime and you will find no glorious mornings like we enjoy right here in Lawrence County and vicinity. They are beautiful and as we enjoy their beauty we ought to be thankful for this great privilege. The Springtime here cannot be compared to any other place in the world.

The United States weather bureau has coined a new word. It is "Smog" and it describes a condition of the air when smoke and fog unite. We hope that all New Castleites will hereafter say "Smog" instead of "dam fog" as they have not done in the past.

The police of New Castle have been told to look up those people suspected of having "unsound minds." We know of some birds who had better not let the police see them or hear 'em talk.

When you make trouble you musn't be surprised if it turns out to be as dangerous and unsatisfactory as most home brew stuff.

There is one fine custom they do have in California. On Easter morning they hold Easter services away out on the high mountains at sunrise and there is nothing more grand than to watch the thousands of people in the early morning at these wonderful services. We could hold that kind of services right here in New Castle or nearby and the distance would not be great for any one to travel.

Sympathy is what a man craves when he makes a fool out of himself, but that isn't what he gets from his dear little wife.

The outstanding men in the state life of Pennsylvania will be in New Castle on Friday evening of this week and will speak in the Scottish Rite Cathedral at eight o'clock in the evening. Men and women are expected to come and there will be no admission. You will learn something if you go and you should go.

We read of an old-fashioned lady in Pittsburgh who clubbed her mate on the coco with a rolling pin and he went to the hospital as a result of the bombardment. Rolling pins are getting scarce, but they sure are effective in an assault.

I attended a movie show the other night. It was not the type of a picture that I greatly admire, but it was fairly well done and I went home very well satisfied with the evening's entertainment. Later I was discusing the picture with a young woman who had seen it on the previous night.

"Did you ever see such a bum play?" she asked. "At the end, when the hero was suposed to take her into his arms and kiss her, all he did was to place his big old hands on her shoulders and look into her eyes like a sick calf."

"To the contrary," I said, "that was the best part of the picture. A soul kiss at the end would have ruined it utterly."

She said I was getting to be an old crab. And I guess I am.

Advertisement in a Kansas City paper:

"Party is known who took gray overcoat, scarf and gloves from Linwood boulevard Christian church Sunday between 4 and 6 o'clock. If returned immediately to church, no questions will be asked. It not, prosecution will follow."

My, my! What's an overcoat between brethren?

Things are all wrong when a girl with a beautiful soul is only loved by her family and the neighbors while the girl with a beautiful figure stampades all the boys at the dances and at the box offices.

What makes the average man hate riches is for the other fellow to have them.

A featherless chicken has been developed in Florida. We just knew that the time would come when the real chickens would have to rival those flappers who are called chickens and they are doing so by shedding their feathers.

In 1492 the world was as cocksure and felt that it knew everything about everything, but look what Columbus found. You never know as much as there is to be known.

President Coolidge is said to have perfect feet, and the Democrats think that with a platform like he has he ought to have two pair to stand on them.

A man's vision is often limited to the scope of his intelligence. Hence you can readily see the reaction when you take a narrow view of things.

Ankle length dresses are the mode now and some of the early style chasers are wearing them. After the display of hosiery and lingerie that the world has become accustomed to it, is good to look upon some real dress goods where it ought to be.

The more honest a man is the less likely he is to suspect others of being dishonest.

Women's colleges are now offering men courses in domestic science, under the idea, probably, that with the complete emancipation and freedom of the sex, men will have to look out for themselves more. Now the bridge game won't need to stop the preparations for supper. Father can go home and do the job.

The display of finery on Easter is said to have been the biggest and best ever, and one keen observer says that the display wasn't limited at all to finery but that there were things to look at and he looked.

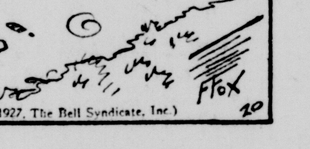

May 8 is Mother's day this year. The Easter flowers will just about be withered in time to be replaced with fresh one's when this big day comes around.

Sucker fishing is in order now and many suckers are being caught, some with worms on a hook and others just caught.

There are times when we are in doubt as to which to have taken out—the telephone of the bathtub.

If there is one thing the average modern woman can't stand for in another woman it is feminity.

The law of compensation is still operative, and in no better way is this illustrated than in the fact that the further women go in discarding skirts, the nearer the young men evolute toward them with their Oxford bags.

Anyway the poor farmer can sit down to a good dinner without breaking a five dollar bill.

As a real estate proposition a haunted house hasn't the ghost of a show.

17 Percent of Wage Earners Belong To Labor Unions.

There are about 12,500,000 persons employed in mechanical and manufacturing trades excluding transportation, mining and building construction in the United States. Of these, 1,369,000 (including probably a few in transportation) are enrolled in employe representation plans, whilst only about 1,120,000 are enrolled in trade unions. By far the majority of members of trade unions are engaged in building construction, transportation and coal mining.

The total number of persons gainfully employed in trades whose members are susceptible to organization is upward of 20,000,000. The total dues paying membership of the American Federation of Labor, announced at its last annual convention, was 2,804,000. In 1923, according to Dr. Lee Wolman, there were 729,600 workers unionized, but not affiliated with the American Federation of Labor. This latter figure is undoubtedly lower today. It is apparent that only about 17 per cent of the wage earners in organizable trades, including federal employes, actors and teachers, are unionized, and that in the manufacturing trades the number of those who bargain collectively through trade unions are at least no greater than those who bargain collectively through factory organizations, while those who work without the collective agreements number 15,000,000, or 75 per cent.—Law and Labor, March, 1927. France and England can't agree on armament reduction. France wants plenty of submarines, to sink enemy warships, and has plenty of airships to take care of big cities. England with her gigantic fleet, wants small cruisers not easily hit by flying machine marksmen and the fewest submarines possible. They are too dangerous to commercial shipping.

To Governor Smith, probable Democratic candidate for 1928 and a Roman Catholic, Charles Marshall addressed long questions which come to this: "If you were elected president would you be governed by the laws of the United States or by orders from Rome?"

Governor Smith answered ably in several thousand words. Thirty-one words of his answer constitute a complete answer, as follows:

"I recognize no power in the institution of my church to interefere with the operation of the constitution of the United States or the enforcement of the laws of the land."

On a dull news day word came from Washington that President Coolidge and Secretary Hoover must be on bad terms, when the president's "spokesman," announced that, even if Secretary Kellogg did retire, Hoover would not become secretary of state.

That doesn't mean a quarrel, it means common sense.

Taking Hoover from work that he is doing so well, canal planning and power development, would be a calamity.

Coolidge and Hoover are not "competitors" for the Republican nomination in 1928. If the president wants it, it is his. If he accepts, which he may well do since there is no third term question involved, Secretary Hoover and all other Republicans will work for him.

If the president, which seems improbable, should refuse a second nomination and election, he would, of course, refrain from any interference with the convention, watching "the best man win."

Secretary Hoover would certainly be among the best men. That's all there is to that yarn, and the president and Secretary Hoover had breakfast together on Easter Sunday morning.

Wise gentlemen that bought United States Steel stock praise themselves for good reasons. The new steel stock to be given as a present to old stock owners will be as good as the old stock and pay 7 per cent dividend. At least, that's the ticker's guess. If only we knew yesterday what we know today. Judd Gray, who confessed that he beat Mrs. Snyder's husband to death with a sash weight, warns other men: "Lay off bad liquor. Be careful of the women you go with."

Mrs. Snyder says Gray is a miserable coward and she is done with him. She might have known that before the killing, when Gray planned, as they both confessed, to murder a sleeping man.

PARTIES

Just why the human race continues practices that are entirely without reason or common sense it is hard to understand.

Probably it is the force of inertia or momentum.

One of the strongest motives in humanity is to keep on doing the thing we have done in the way we have done it for the simple reason that we always have done it that way.

We persist in our ridiculous calendar consisting of unequal months and varying figures for each day of the week when we might easily adopt a uniform calendar that would make every day of the week fall on a similar date, making a calendar unnecessary.

We go on with our foolish pounds shillings and pence and pounds, ounces and grams when the metrical system as adopted by most of the world is extremely practical.

Gentlemen continue to wear top hats no matter how absurd they are in appearance and lacking in comfort.

But the most ridiculous thing we do in the United States is to persist

A GOLF TRICK.

Remember when at golf you play
The rules were made to be obeyed,
And when the other chap's away
Refuse to shoot 'till he has played.

All even on the eighteenth green
I stood with old man Sharp, and he,
As it was very plainly seen,
Was due to putt ahead of me.

"I find I have to tie my shoe,
You putt, 'twill save us time," he said.
That seemed a thoughtful thing to do,
And so I smiled and went ahead.

The cup was in a trick place,
I tapped my ball and watched it roll
And saw a grin light up his face
As it went skidding by the hole.

For ways peculiar and dark
A golfer beats the bland Chinee,
He knew I'd overshoot the mark
And that two putts would vanquish me.

The moral's just as plain as day,
Don't fail for any willy ruse,
Make him shoot first who is away
And wait until he ties his shoes.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

A GREAT DISAPPOINTMENT

There has been a great deal of printer's ink used in describing Theodore Roosevelt's South American exploits. It required an abnormal sum of physical and mental courage for a man to enter the fever-filled jungles and swamps of Brazil, to be the first white man who ever explored the unknown interior of that great country. How much more should, therefore, be said concerning the adventure of Commander de Pinedo!

It must be remembered that the great monoplane which was destroyed in the mountain reservoir of Arizona was a sea plane. It was a plane that could not land upon the earth, but when a landing was contemplated, it was necessary to find a body of water sufficiently large to enable de Pinedo to effect a safe landing. Notwithstanding all this, in sheer audacity, de Pinedo, after successfully flying from Cagliari, Sardinia, across the Atlantic to Buenos Aires, with superhuman courage, flew straight North across the uncharted wilderness of Brazil. Once when forced down he succeeded in picking out some water in a Brazilian swamp, from which he hoped against hope that he could eventually take to the air again. His being able to extricate himself at that time was a miracle, no less than the miracle which happened when Roosevelt, stricken with fever, pulled himself with the aid of his son Kermit, and company through these same jungles to safety.

Now after having done all this, crossed the Atlantic, the continent of South America, the Gulf of Mexico, the prairies and the mountains of western United States, his great plane is destroyed by the careless act of a boy. I suppose that naturally water is a good place to throw a match, better than the tinder floor of a forest, anyway, but such an ending to a great adventure constitutes one of the greatest anti-climaxes that the sporting world has ever witnessed.

De Pinedo will get another plane. Premier Mussolini says so, and the great Duce thinks so much of his Fascist aviator he is sending him a plane by special delivery on an Italian destroyer. Very bizarre and highly interesting. But that plane will not be the plane that de Pinedo grew to love as much as any shipmaster ever loved his boat. To finish his journey in a new plane will bring to the great aviator but little pleasure compared to the joy he would have had in sailing back and landing on Italian shores in the "Santa Maria".

WHAT IS FUNNY?

What was the funniest thing you ever saw, heard or read? Can you recall what incident, story, picture or saying made you laugh harder and longer than anything else?

Of course, some very amusing things do not make people laugh. And some persons may be more pleasurably amused when they merely smile than when they laugh. Others seldom laugh, and these persons may be just as appreciative of humor as those whose enjoyment is expressed by hearty laughter. As for myself, I recall very vividly a few things that have made me laugh exceedingly.

A prominent comic artist drew some advertising strips for a tobacco company about a dozen years ago. I have forgotten the brand of tobacco, but one of those strips I shall always remember. It told, in four or five small sketches, the story of a young man who disregarded the advice of his father, who wanted son to stay home and smoke for an evening. The erring son went forth on his motorcycle, ran over many cats and dogs, and finally smashed into an iron statue of a moose, in a park. Far into the sky went son and motorcycle, and when the descent to earth began the young man remarked sagely, "I knew it was a moose, but I didn't know it was made of iron!"

It doesn't sound funny when thus related, does it? But it was funny in that cartoon. I laughed all day, so that I was unfit for work. I clipped out the sketch and showed it to all my friends. I carried it about in my pocket, and at meals, in restaurants, I used to take it out for a furtive glance. One look and I started laughing. The meal was spoiled, and the proprietor was insulted. I grew thin from laughing at that cartoon at meals.

I sent that clipping by mail to all my most intimate friends, all over the country, with warnings to return it. I carried it in my pocketbook for two years, and bored or entertained my friends with it, depending upon whether the individual approached thought the thing funny or sad. There was some disagreement on that score, though most of my acquaintances laughed a good deal about it. The clipping finally wore out, and I have never been able to replace it. When I met the artist in person, years later, I asked, as my first greeting, for the original of that strip. He had lost track of it in the routine of work, long ago.

Operatic Stars, Now On Tour, Make Summer Vacation Plans

Gatti-Casazza's Galaxy, Disbanding On May 10, After Season Of Hard Work, Have Varied Program For Rest, Recreation And Travel—Most Of Them Back At Metropolitan Next Season

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 20.—Gatti-Casazza's galaxy of operatic stars—the Metropolitan Opera Company, now on tour—disband on the night of May 10 after a final performance in Rochester, N. Y., and sad indeed will be the farewells.

For, as General Manager Gatti-Casazza will tell you, they have been one great big, lovable family and not—as some might expect—an aggregation of envious and temperamental artists. They have worked long and hard with one objective—the success of the company. And what a smashing success it has been! The spring tour they are now making takes them to Baltimore, Washington, Atlanta, Cleveland and finally Rochester where the good-byes will be said.

And where are these famous personalities going after that, and what are they going to do. All of them, of course, have not made up their minds but most of them have.

International News Service learned today that Mme. Amelita Balli-Curci, the internationally famous colotura soprano, has at present only one plan in mind: To

"I feel I need a rest," she said. "Before I do any more work I'm going to take a vacation.

Has Golf Hobby

"Golf is one of my hobbies, and I'm going to try my best to see if I can't get back in form and break 100."

Her husband, famous pianist, who is her accompanist, will go with her on her vacation.

Mme. Marie Jeritza already has left the company, having sailed a few weeks ago for Europe, and is now singing in Vienna.

Marion Talley, the western girl who recently sprang into fame as a great coloratura soprano, will continue to sing at concert performances throughout the country until June when she will return to her home in Kansas City.

Beniamino Gigli noted Italian lyric tenor plans to depart for Brazil as soon as the company disbands in Rochester. He will sing there, and in other South American countries, and will be gone three months. He is taking his wife and two children, a boy and a girl, along with him.

The pretty English soprano, Florence Easton, is going back to London for a rest.

"I feel I have one coming to me this strenuous season," she said.

Plans Concert Tour

The American baritone, Lawrence Tibbett, is planning a concert tour, after which he will return to his Bakersfield, Cal., home.

Ravinia Park, Chicago, is attracting a number of the stars who have been offered remunerative contracts to perform at that famous resort. Those who are going there include: Julia Claussen, the Swedish contralto, who made such a success in "Aida"; Giovanni Martinelli, leading dramatic tenor; Lucrezia Bori, lyric soprano; Elizabeth Retberg, dramatic soprano; Leon Rothier, basso; Guiseppe Danise, baritone; Mario Basiola, baritone and Edward Johnson, the lyric tenor who made a great hit in New York this season as Radames in "Aida" in which he wore the identical costume affected by the great Caruso and sang almost as well as that famous and greatly beloved artist.

Frieda Hempel will sing Bizet's opera this summer in Berlin, Budapest and Munich. She has closed her American concert tour and is about to sail for her engagement abroad.

William Gustafson, basso, plans to remain in New York, his home. He is a baseball fan and will take in many games and, after he has had a rest, will begin study of his roles for next season. Gustafson, the tallest man in the opera company, has a legion of admirers who are wishing him even greater success next year.

Ezio Pinza, the new Italian basso, his wife and baby girl are going to Buenos Aires where Pinza will fill an engagement. This young singer made a real success in New York this season and big things are predicted for him in the future. He is in his late 20's and has plenty of time to develop into one of the greatest of singers.

Giuseppe De Luca, the well-known baritone, who has played at the Metropolitan Oprea House for some twenty years, is also going to Buenos Aires to sing throughout the summer opera season there. He will be accompained by his wife and grown daughter.

Off To Europe

Rosa Ponselle, the American soprano who is said to have one of best voices in the world and who was a former vaudeville singer, will depart for Europe where she will study parts which she will sing in the near future. She it a strikingly handsome woman, tall, dark and about thirty years old. She has an assured future. Her home is in Meriden, Conn.

Most of the company will return to the Metropolitan next season. "Carmen" is to be revived with Mme. Jeritza in the title role. After the blonde Viennese soprano's success in "The Jewels of the Madonna" it was foregone conclusion she would be heard in "Carmen" and Gatti-Casazza has confirmed that fact.

Other important changes are to be made next season and stars of this year are to have better parts.

HORSEWHIPS MAN, ARRESTED

Miss Nell Kirby believed her former employer, S. O. Smith, was telling stories about her. So when she met him on the streets of Rapid City, S. D., she horsewhipped him. She was arrested, but she sued him for $10,000, alleging slander. Smith denies that he said anything to discredit her.

in the custom of having political parties. Men otherwise intelligent meekly bow to the party system. Statesmen accept its edicts and people other wise honest fall in line with its orders.

In the meanwhile it is vicious and ridiculous.

George Washington said: "Let me now warn you in the most solemn manner against the baleful effect of the spirit of party generally. The alternate domination of one factor over another, sharpened by the spirit of revenge natural to party dissensions is itself a frightful despotism. The common and continued mischief of the spirit of party are sufficient to make it the interest and duty of the wise people to discourage and restrain it."

Almost every foolish thing the United States has ever done can be traced to the disregard of Washington's counsel.

We go on voting according to the old system that was in vogue before we had a post office. We ought to do our voting by mail and the postal authorities are sufficient to handle the whole matter. The whole electoral machinery is cumbersome and ineffective and gives rise to monstrous abuses.

Voting should be done in school houses and carried on by mail. In this way it would be easy to take a referendum of the opinion of the people of the country in 30 days on any important question. For instance, whether the people want prohibition and the League of Nations, two questions that are widely discussed and could be quickly settled.

Dr. Benjamin Franklin Wooding of Montclair, New Jersey, is carrying on a brave campaign to get across this non-partisan idea. The majority of the people decline to vote because they have no choice in the selection of candidates. Thus the party system disenfranchises most of the people. We are continually exhorted to vote, but we continue to neglect that exhortation because voting is useless. A compact party of office seekers do all our selecting for us and the best we can do is to choose between two evils. The crowning effort of George Washington's life was to combat the party spirit and Washington was no mean statesman.

King Tut Members To Meet Tonight

Announcement was made today that the King Tut league, composed of all old-timers between the ages of 30 and 100, will operate a fast circuit this year.

Plans for the coming campaign will be outlined and talked over tonight at 8:30 at the Y. M. C. A. It is urged that all former King Tut league members and any others desiring to play in the loop this year attend the meeting tonight.

Contractors Here Reject Proposal From Youngstown

Declare Youngstown Engineers Proposal For Work Here Is Not Fair

General contractors of the city met last night for the consideration of the new scale and working rules proposed by the Youngstown local of the hoisting engineers, for use in this district.

The contractors in session found the proposals of the engineers, supposed to go into effect May 1, to be very unsatisfactory and unfair and came to the decision that they would not be willing to agree to the proposals.

The main reasons expressed at the meeting for not being in favor of the proposals were as follows: "That it was not considered fair to hire Youngstown engineers in preference to New Castle engineers and pay their transportation and traveling expenses; that this proposal restricted the right of the contractors to hire whom they please, when the Youngstown engineers insisted that only men selected by the business agent of that local be employed; that too much was claimed in the matter of jurisdiction of work that the engineers do."

A committee of four was appointed to meet with representatives of the Youngstown engineers Thursday evening and convey the decision of the local contractors to the latter. The members of the committee of the contractors are Ken Smith, M. J. Scanlon, Albert Hoyland and M. J. Kintz.

The elevator is between the first two and the third store room on the ground floor. All three of these store rooms are to be joined in one immense store room.

Tentative plans call for moving the elevator and the shaft to another location in the building. This will be no small contract, as a new fire-proof elevator shaft will have to be erected through the four floors of the building.

Fourth Of July Celebration Planned By American Legion

GROVE CITY, Pa., April 20.—The Grove City Post, No. 220, of the American Legion, held their regular monthly business meeting Monday evening in the Commercial Club rooms. In the absence of Commander Carruthers and also of the vice commander, William Smith, a past commander, presided.

A committee from the Grove City Volunteer Firemen's Association presented preliminary plans for a celebration here on the Fourth of July and asked for the co-operation of the American Legion in carrying out the details for the event. The Legion voted to lend their support to the plan, but action was held over until Commander Carruthers appoints a committee for that purpose.

The bugle and drum corps committee, consisting of E. S. Hassler, Ken Lauderdale and R. S. Freet, reported various information on the organization of such a corps here in Grove City. The local post decided to go ahead with the organization, with the aim of having 24 members.

According to James A. Allison, adjutant, the local post at present has the largest enrollment in its history. Due to the efforts of the membership committee, of which N. J. Surrena is chairman, the present membership has been increased to 112, which is two more than the enrollment two years ago.

Fourteen Men Apply For Bottle Of 'Moon'

However, None Of Them Can Prove Ownership To "Likker"

Fourteen men with a longing for "moon" and a desire to varnish their esophagus have laid claim to the pint bottle of amber colored "likker" found by a bus driver on a P-O coach.

None of the men were able to prove their ownershrip and as a result the offer remains open—and the man who can prove his ownership can cart his "eye opener" away.

One man appeared as early as five a. m. today. He was in need of his "mornin's mornin'" no doubt and inasmuch as "gumshoe sleuths" quit at 3 a. m. he thought he would claim the pint.

With visions of yanking out the cork and letting the booze flow down his esophagus he appeared as if from nowhere and phantomlike leaped into the dispatcher's office.

With all the cunning of a lawyer he made claim to the bottle. He told where he had lost his pint but his eloquent plea fell on deaf ears. He didn't name the right coach, nor the time.

Later on the men arrived in pairs and trios and each of them had to edge out of the office as none of them could give a satisfactory claim to ownershrip.

The offer to return the pint tof "pizen" stands open but the company, true to regulations, must have ownership established beyond the hair line of doubt.

The bottle is a regular "saloon" type affair. It has the same kind of a cork that once was placed in pint bottles containing what, in the days of pre-Volsteadism, was known as "rot-gut."

The "moon" has been artificially colored and when first turned out of a distillery known nowadays as a "still" was white—and before colored had the appearance of being "milky".

The fourteen who called for the pint have had their chance to prove ownership and will not receive any more chances. Only newcomers claim will be considered.

In the meanwhile the gentleman who lost the bottle has not arrived to claim his ownership. He can obtain his "likker" by telling what bus, the time the bottle was lost and the line the coach operated over.

Attaches of the office declare they will not reveal the name of the man to whom the bottle goes. Neither will they "turn him up." Meanwhile the bottle remains unopened in the dispatcher's room.

Urges Support Of Local Organization

R. A. McKinney Says There Is Real Need For Chamber Of Commerce

In a letter to David S. Pyle, general chairman of New Castle's expansion movement, Robert A. McKinney, head of the New Castle Notion company, writes the following:

"New Castle needs an organization to give expression to our community problems. There are statistics to be gathered and commercial problems to be solved which no individual or corporation is called upon to handle. The Chamber of Commerce fills that want in our civic life. The good that it can do for our general prosperity is boundless. In order to bring about the greatest amount of prosperity it is necessary for every firm and individual to do their part toward helping the Chamber of Commerce carry out its splendid program for New Castle. Boost in this campaign for a better and greater New Castle."

Long Delay Seen In Building Of Wampum Viaduct

Commissioners Delayed And Handicapped By Slowness Of Various Commissions

County commissioners have not yet heard anything from the Public Service Commission regarding the proposed viaduct at Wampum. The last action before the commission was the submission of briefs of attorneys relative to the distribution of costs, between the county and the different railroad interested.

After the Public Service Commission approves the plans they must then go before the Waterways Commission, and lastly before the War Department. "It is said that the War Department enters into the proposition owing to the projected Lake Erie Ship Canal.

It is now three years since the project was started and there is little likelihood that all the different commissions will get through with the project in time for anything to be done this year. Counties are so badly handicapped with commissions that it is hard to get anything accomplished. It took about eleven years to get the Gardner avenue viaduct built, which is a sample of how public improvements are held up.

Police Beats Are Being Changed

Shifts Being Made In Some Assignments Of City Officers

Police give best service when their "beats" are changed every three or four months, according to Mayor William H. Dunlap today when asked if further changes are contemplated. Recently the patrols of several members of the night force were changed. The superintendent of police intimated other changes may be made. Before changes are made, the capability of men, will be first considered.

The asignments put into effect recently follows:

Patrolman Campbell from Mahoning avenue to "beat" between Water and Mill streets.

Patrolman James, from Water and Mill streets "beat" to Mercer to Jefferson streets patrol.

Patrolman Fleeger to Mahoning avenue and Seventh ward patrol to cooperate during late hours with patrolman James Hagen.

Patrolman George Kennedy, recently reelected has been assigned to the First ward district.

Campbell, James, Greer and Kennedy patrol the business front" from Neshannock to Shenango river bridge.

Patrolman Greer is stationed between Mill and Mercer streets a "beat" he has had for years.

It is not known how long Kennedy will be retained in uniform, owing to his intimate knowledge of police work. He is the only ex-county detective in uniform. He served on the police force as night lieutenant which is an important post.

At the present time the day squad of plain clothesmen consists of Peter Hillers and Thomas Lynch. The night squad is composed of Marion Young and John Moore.

The two city detectives are C. G. Logan and Cyrus Horner. The plain-clothesmen assist the detectives in investigations and the latter report to Chief Dysart.

Body Of Missing Boy Is Located

(International News Service)

SCRANTON, Pa., April 20.—A four-week search for seven-year-old Arthur Sailer of South Scranton had ended today with the discovery of the boy's body in a stream, Roaring Brook. Young Sailer had drowned on March 29 while trying to rescue a 13-year-old companion from the water.

The lad had been missing 10 days before two brothers, Wesley Frable, 13, and Joseph Frable, 10, told police that their younger playmate had drowned in the brook while trying to rescue the elder brother.

They said they had been afraid to tell about the drowning because they had run away from school the day the drowning occurred.

Efforts to find the boy's body by dragging and dynamiting the stream had failed. It was found pinned against a rock in the brook by boys.

Buick is in a value class

BUICK'S position of leadership is founded on value. Its constant aim is to build each Buick better than the last.

The savings that Buick's tremendous volume provides are used to further enrich quality—by such improvements as the Sealed Chassis, the Torque-Tube-Drive, Mechanical Four-Wheel Brakes, an Engine vibrationless beyond belief, and the increased luxury and refinement Buick offers in its Fisher Bodies.

And today, in keeping with its policy of continual advancement, Buick is constantly seeking to improve its design—constantly searching for the new and better thing—constantly striving still further to increase the value on which Buick's leadership is based.

SEDANS $1195 TO $1995

All prices are f. o. b. Flint, Michigan; government tax to be added. Buick delivered prices are lower because the smallest possible handling charge has been established by the Buick factory. The G. M. A. C. financing plan, the most desirable, is also available. The model illustrated is the Five-Passenger Sedan, Series 115, $1295.

TO PRESENT PROGRAM

Under the direction of Miss Jessie L. Mockel of the conservatory of music, the men's glee club of Westminster college will present a varied program for its home concert Friday evening in the Community auditorium here.

Miss Elizabeth Glover of New Castle, reader, and John Louden of Mars, violinist, will be the assistants. From among the 26 men of the organization there has been secured a sextet of stringed instruments and the double quartet will also appear.

Proceeds derived from the concert will be used towards the library fund.

MISS MOCKEL HONORED

Friends of Miss Jessie Mockel of the Westminster conservatory of music will be pleased to learn that she has been appointed teacher of organ at Chautauqua, N. Y., for the coming summer.

Miss Mockel last season was one of the two piano accompanists for the Chautauqua chorus and soloists, Harold Richey of the Dickinson Williamsport seminary being the other. This season Miss Mockel will retain this position in addition to her new appointment.

Miss Mockel will take the place of Hugh Porter, organist of the Calvary Episcopal church, New York City. Mr. Porter will remain with the Chautauqua as organist, but will have no teaching appointments.

During the summer Miss Mockel and Mr. Richey will make one appearance with the New York Symphony orchestra which is under the direction of Albert Stoissel.

WESTMINSTER LEADS

Three of the four missionaries supported by the Young People's Christian Union of the United Presbyterian church are graduates of Westminster college, according to the Christian Union Herald.

John C. Heinrich, class of 1909, was graduated from the Pittsburgh seminary in 1915. He married Jessie Kneff of Akron, O. His first term in India was from 1916 to 1922. After a furlough in this country Mr. and Mrs. Heinrich returned in 1923 to India with their three children.

Glenn P. Reed, valedictorian of the class of 1920, attended Princeton seminary. He organized and coached the first basketball team in the Sudan. Since there was no opponent to be played, he coached another team at the Gereif Agricultural school. He is now located at Ondurman.

Walter J. Skellie, class of 1921, was graduated from the Theological seminary at Pittsburgh in 1924. He married Clara McDowell, a Westminster graduate. Mr. and Mrs. Skellie have completed two years language study in Cairo and have moved to Alexandria, Egypt, to be associated with Dr. Mark S. Roy in evangelistic work.

START REHEARSALS

With the cast practically complete and with each dance nearing perfection, Mrs. Mary C. McConagha, director of the May pageant to be presented at Westminster college, May 28, is very optimistic.

The first outdoor rehearsal may be held Saturday on the athletic field, weather permitting. Miss Helen Webb, a Westminster graduate and now director of physical education in the Oakmont, Pa., schools will be present. Miss Webb has been instructing the dance leaders and has made great progress.

The pageant this year will commemorate the 75th anniversary of the college.

BLACKSMITH'S BODY RACKED WITH PAINS FOR 11 YEARS

Sleep Disturbed at Night

Dallas, Pa.—The look of wretched pain gone from his face, Mr. Charles Searfoss, one of the best known blacksmiths in this section of Pennsylvania, residing on Main Street, this city, asked your correspondent to put his remarkable story in the papers.

"I am fifty-four years old. For the past eleven years I have suffered the most horrible rheumatic pains. Only one who has actually been through it can understand. Sitting up or lying down, it was always the same — my legs and whole side of my body just ached. I could get no rest at night; my kidney weakness caused me to be disturbed every night. I was grouchy and irritable—always fighting with someone.

"After taking Matamel I found the aches getting better; I could hardly believe it—it was too good to be true, and I expected it was just temporary. But, no! I am really another man. I sleep all night, feel fine in the morning, and am back on the job again. I'm not so nervous and irritable—and I owe it all to Matamel."

If this story reaches other sufferers from rheumatic pains, or from certain forms of chronic kidney and bladder inflammation — folks who are disturbed at night, have dizzy spells, weakness, swollen feet and legs, no appetite, headaches and ringing sound in the ears; if they will learn that Matamel is that wonderful natural sap of the Mexican Maguey Plant that helps so many people, then this story has done its purpose. Matamel can be had here from:

Here's The Way

To Clear "Off-Color" Teeth

That Foremost Dentists Advise

Please Accept 10-Day Tube and Make This Remarkable Dental Test

NOW dull, dingy, "off-color" teeth are restored to dazzling whiteness in a new way. Ugly teeth soon will disappear.

Famous movie stars use this way before going on a scene. That's why movie smiles glisten so. Leading dentists urge it widely. For it protects the teeth and firms tender gums.

It works by removing a dingy film that forms on your teeth, and dulls them by absorbing discolorations from food, smoking, etc. A slippery film you can feel with your tongue; and that invites germ growth, decayed teeth and gum troubles.

Old-type dentifrices failed to remove it successfully. That's why brushing thus far failed you.

Beneath it are the teeth you envy in others. Remove it, for your own sake. One's whole appearance changes as clear, white teeth come.

The name is Pepsodent. Thousands now employ it. We'll send you a tube to try. Or get large tube for a few cents at your druggist.

The hen is a handsome Plymouth Rock and has a marker about one leg which Mr. and Mrs. Elingsworth hope may serve to establish the identity of the owner.

WRITES FROM CALIFORNIA

San Diego, California.
April 14, 1927.

New Castle News Co.
Friends:

It has been a long time since I have written anything for The News from here, so will send a few lines. San Diego is the mobilizing point for the men going to China. Hundreds of marines and sailors are down at the piers with one mass of war material, cannons, airplanes, tractors, tanks, etc. There sure is going to be something doing some place. The transport Henderson left here a week ago with 2,200 men, and now another load will be going.

We still have the ideal weather of California. It is great to get up in the morning and see the sun shining and all the flowers in bloom.

Captain Bell is still kicking around like a young boy. H. D. Clark, who used to blow glass at the old Lawrence glass plant of the West Side, has a large sandwich plant here. It is called the "Best Yet". The auto parties all stop there for their hamburgers.

Mrs. John Greer is visiting her daughter Elizabeth in Portland, Oregon.

I get pretty close to New Castle on my radio. K. D. K. A. is very plain.

Our harbor is quite deserted now, all the cruisers, submarines and destroyers on the east coast for war maneuvers. We look for them to be going to China or foreign waters.

Will close for this time.

Continue War On Dogs Here

Number Of Dogs On Streets Is Showing Big Reduction

War on dogs running at large about the streets of the city is continuing, it was announced by the police department today. In fact it is not a new effort on the part of the police, only a little special effort along the regular lines and it is bringing results.

Three or four more unlicensed dogs have been killed this week so far and a number of owners of licensed dogs have been ordered in and have paid three dollar fines.

The number of dogs running at large is very materially decreased and it is planned by the police department to keep the number at a minimum, by constant action against dogs permitted to roam the streets of the city.

Several cats have also fallen victim to the special effort of the police in eliminating animals roaming at large, and causing damage and inconvenience for the people of the city.

Bible Classes Of City Have Meeting

Object To Perfect An Organization To Increase Membership Of Classes

Bible classes from the First M. E., Epworth M. E., Euclid M. E., Wesley M. E., First Baptist, Second Baptist, First Christian, Central Christian, Bethany Lutheran, First Presbyterian, First United Presbyterian, Second United Presbyterian, Third United Presbyterian and Highland United Presbyterian churches, were represented at a meeting Tuesday evening of increasing the membershrip of the several classes by working one with another but with one main idea, that of "Soul Saving for Jesus Christ."

Several of the men spoke of the possibilities of such a work. It was pointed out that the trend all over the country is for increased numbers in the church, and with a little bit of extra work on the part of those already there, great things could be done.

Since only 14 of the 56 Protestant churches of the city were represented, it was decided that nothing of a definite nature be done until there could be a larger representation.

Next Tuesday evening, April 28 at 7:30 Eastern Standard time another meeting is called in the First M. E. church.

Each Bible class or school will receive a note telling of the plan as outlined.

Stomach Was So Sore He Could Hardly Bear To Touch It

Pensioned Shenango Tin Plate Mills Employee Also Suffered Agonies With Rheumatism. Tells How Dreco Made Him Well

"If there's a man in New Castle who got more help from Dreco than I did I'd like to see him," declared Mr. John Thomas, 511 N. Cascade street, this city, in a recent conversation with the Dreco man at Eckerd's Cut Rate Store. Mr. Thomas is a pensioned employee of the Shenango Tin Plate Mills where he worked for twenty-six years and he has a host of friends all over this section.

"Why, I used to have such attacks of dizziness that everything went black before me and I'd have to lay down or sit down to keep from falling. My stomach was so sore I couldn't bear the touch of my clothing and was so swelled with gas I could hardly button my clothes. No matter how carefully I chose my food I suffered agonies with indigestion afterward and my pains were so great I didn't know what a sound night's sleep was like.

"Although nothing else had ever helped me Dreco went right to the root of my troubles and in a short time I was completely free of the dizzy spells and stomach distress and was sleeping, eating and feeling as well as I did years ago. I gained about twenty pounds in weight and can now sit down and eat a hearty meal without the least fear of suffering afterward.

"The relief Dreco brought me is all the more wonderful because before taking it I had tried numerous other medicines without getting any relief."

Mr. Paul Thorpe, the well-known Expert from the Dreco Laboratories now at Eckerd's of New Castle, Inc. is telling scores of people every day how to take Dreco for best results. Go to see him. His advice is free.

Make Arrest For Bombing

Hold Farrel Man For Bombing Burgess' Home In 1925

(International News Service)

FARRELL, Pa., April 20.—Frank Capano, 50, fruit dealer, was placed in the Mercer county jail today to await a hearing on a charge of having been instrumental in the bombing in 1925 of the home of Fred S. Fish, while the latter was burgess of Farrell. Capano's arrest came after a fight with Carmen Esposito with whom he lived. Mr. and Mrs. Esposito offered damaging testimony against the man.

They testified that Capano, returning home shortly after the bombing, had made the statement that he placed dynamite under the porch of the burgess' house. Records show that Capano had been released a few days prior to the bombing from the workhouse where he had been sent on a charge of violating the liquor laws. Burgess Fish was instrumental in having the man arrested.

Mr. and Mrs. Fish and their son were asleep at the time of the bombing and escaped injuries.

Hope To Eliminate Diptheria Menace

Lawrence County Public Health Association has endorsed the diphtheria control campaign of the state health department, according to Dr. H. C. Harper, county director of health. The New Castle public schools are starting a campaign whereby they hope to immunize every school child against this dread disease and under the auspices of the county health association the benefit of this service will be extended to all the schools of the county.

It is the aim of the state health department, with the help of local communities and physicians, to eliminate diphtheria as a health menace by 1930.

It has been fully demonstrated that this can be done, just as smallpox and typhoid fever have been brought under control.

Fifteen years ago Pennsylvania lost hundreds of thousands of hogs and millions of dollars of money, were lost each year through the ravages of hog cholera. The agricultural department, by a statewide fight, has succeeded in completely eradicating that fatal disease of the swine in its epidemic form, with its accompanying economic loss. This happy result was attained by the use of a curative serum, a preventive vaccine, and by quarantine.

Diphtheria lends itself readily to the same procedure. We know more about this child-killing thing than almost any other disease.

In 1921 a statewide campaign was undertaken by your state health department. Three objectives were held constantly in mind and with the help of the medical profession the public was taught to know that diphtheria could be controlled by holding fast to these three basic principles:

1. Larger and earlier doses of antitoxin as a curative agent.
2. Strict observation of quarantine of both patients and contacts.
3. Lasting immunization by toxin-antitoxin.

As a result of six years of intensive campaigning along this line the department continues securing most gratifying results.

When the work started there were more than 20,000 cases of diphtheria in the state for that year. This figure has gradually been reduced until 1926, when there were but 8,443 cases.

In the beginning of the campaign there were over 2,000 deaths from diphtheria that year. In 1926 there were but 819 deaths.

Death rate per 100,000 population in 1921, 22.5.

Death rate per 100,000 population in 1926, 8.7.

During the same period approximately 600,000 children have been given the protective serum against the disease, outside the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh. This has been more or less under supervision of the State Department of Health. The local physicians and nurses in communities have willingly volunteered their services gratis.

In 1926 there were nine counties in which there were no deaths from diphtheria and 13 counties in which there were but from five to 20 deaths from diphtheria. Twenty-four cities and boroughs and three townships, with a population of over 10,000, also had no deaths from diphtheria.

Remember, diphtheria can be controlled, is being controlled, and should be entirely eliminated as an epidemic disease by 1930.

FOUR ARE KILLED IN PLANE CRASH

(International News Service)

LONDON, April 20.—Four men were killed Tuesday in an airplane accident at Eastchurch, Kent, the air ministry announced.

This brings the toll of deaths in the Royal Air Force close to one hundred for the past twelve months.

The men met their death when their plane, a Vickers Boxber, crashed to earth and burst into flames, burning before any of the bodies could be removed.

Sandwina, a young heavyweight battler whose rapid-fire victories created a sensation in the London ring, is an American, born in Sioux City, Ia., and of German and Jewish descent. Sandwina comes naturally by his magnificent physique, for he is the son of a circus performer known as the "Strongest Woman in the World."

Abie's Irish Rose Here This Evening

Famous Comedy To Be Presented Tonight In Cathedral Auditorium

The Scottish Rite Cathedral has as its attraction for this evening Anne Nichols' history-making and appealing comedy, "Abie's Irish Rose", of which the whole country has been talking for the past five years, and which has added more pages to theatrical history than any play written in the past century or more.

"Abie's Irish Rose" is a comedy of human appeal, containing a laugh to every minute. It is a beautiful love story hinging upon age-old religious prejudices, and in its unfolding takes the auditors through many ludicrous scenes, abounding in witty dialogues and screamingly funny complications between Abie and his Irish bride, and their respective Jewish and Irish fathers, without offense to the most fastidious, and at the same time serves its purpose in teaching its lesson of tolerance.

The company which will present the play here has not missed a performance in almost two solid years, and includes among its larger city runs, ten weeks in Montreal, seventeen weeks in Toronto, eleven weeks in Buffalo, six weeks in Syracuse, four weeks in Utica, and in each city added a page in local theatrical history.

Good seats are to be had for the performance.

Standard Is Set For New Ideas In School Work

In the April issue of "The School Bulletin", the official publication of the New Castle schools, Superintendent C. C. Green outlines 10 standards for the judging of new ideas in school procedure. Every innovation in the New Castle schools must meet with the standards outlined and because they are of interest to everybody they are reprinted herewith.

1. Is the idea sound? (a) Is it in the interest of childhood? (b) Is it for the child?
2. Is the idea practical? Or is it strange or novel?
3. Is the idea generally accepted by those competent to judge?
4. Has the idea been tested and under what conditions?
5. Have these tests proved reasonably acceptable?
6. To what extent would the idea appeal to the public?
7. What kind and amount of free education is necessary?
8. What are the most reasonable methods of reaching our aim?
9. How much will it do violence to our organization?
10. How much will it cost?

The average worker gets $2,000—if you call it "getting" when he hands money from one fellow to another.

Chandler has hit a stride that is making them all talk!

WHENEVER something better comes along—something actually, visibly, intrinsically better—the world quickly welcomes it.

Witness the great spontaneous success of the magnificent new Royal Eight and new Sixes by Chandler—here, there and everywhere!

Pressing Rapidly Ahead

Four different price classes are feeling keenly the widened extent and increased volume of Chandler sales.

In every state, every city and town, motor car owners are shifting to Chandler.

The good and ample reasons for this success are very apparent.

In Eights and Sixes alike just see how Chandler has glorified the present trend of motor car design.

See how Chandler has embellished the customary standards of luxury.

See how Chandler has surpassed all ideas of modern performance—with the mighty power of its marvelous Pikes Peak Motor!

A Company of Strength

The cars themselves reflect the fortified stability back of the cars. And this stability of Chandler is important to bear in mind—for everybody wants to be sure the car he buys is backed up by an organization of strength and permanence.

Chandler owns two modern large-volume plants—"lock, stock and barrel"—and not a penny against them on paper or in fact.

Chandler is wholly independent of anybody and everybody in the entire industry.

Chandler Really Builds a Car!

Chandler cars are Chandler-built, not assembled—built in practical entirety in Chandler's own plants—all the way from the raw products to the final operations.

Chandler's distributing and dealer organization not only blankets the United States and Canada, but extends throughout the world.

And as a direct result of the leaping increase in Chandler sales more new dealers are applying for the Chandler franchise than in any other period of Chandler history.

The Line is Complete

Chandler now sponsors one of the very largest and most selective lines of fine motor cars before the public.

Twenty-five custom body styles—the Sixes ranging from $945 to $1895, the Eights $2195 to $2295; (f. o. b. Factory). All models have the famous Chandler "One-Shot" lubrication system. We proudly ask you to look at these cars—drive—compare them with anything else on wheels!

Children's Sore Throat

Mothers know that children's sore throats are serious, often leading to tonsilitis, scarlet fever or diphtheria. Also that it is hard to treat because the usual remedy is a gargle and children can not gargle.

A famous physician's prescription called Thoxine works on new principle—goes direct to the cause not reached by gargles and patent medicines and brings relief within 15 minutes or money back.

And the remarkable thing about it is it contains no iron, chloroform or dope—harmless and safe, pleasant taste. Remember, relief within 15 minutes or money back. 35c., 60c. and $1.00. Love & Megown, Terminal Drug Store and all other good drug stores.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 20 years and calomel's old-time enemy, discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, just a healing, soothing vegetable laxative mixed with olive oil.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action.

If you have a "dark brown mouth"—bad breath—a dull, tired feeling—sick headache—torpid liver—constipation, you'll find quick, sure and pleasant results from one or two of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take them every night to keep right. Try them. 15c, 30c, 60c.

Friends Urge Smith To Make Statement About Prohibition

Attitude On Wet And Dry Issue Big Obstacle To Ambition

By GEORGE R. HOLMES
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 20.—Elated over the country-wide reaction to his reply to the Marshall letter, friends of Gov. Al Smith here and elsewhere are advising him to declare himself with equal clarity on the controversial subject of prohibition.

Gov. Smith, his friends feel, has successfully hurdled one of the greatest obstacles in his road toward the Democratic presidential nomination by his epochal letter declaring for the absolute separation of church from state. The governor's attitude toward prohibition constitutes the other main obstacle, and many of his friends feel he should dispose of it in the same ringing manner.

The suggestion comes not alone from the governor's friends, but from some of his critics as well. It is recognized that the chief opposition of Smith centers in the solid south, which is Protestant and dry. An analysis of editorial comment from southern newspapers, and statements from Democratic leaders in the south, has shown that the governor's reply to the Marshall letter was approved in the south almost as much as in the north. It was striking, however, how many of the southern commentators mingled criticism of the governor's view on prohibition with their praise of his disposal of the religious issue.

Says Revised Farm Bill Will Be Approved

By GEORGE H. MANNING
(Washington Correspondent of the News)

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 20.—That Congress will pass and President Coolidge will sign a revised farm relief bill next year is thought to be the message that William M. Butler, chairman of the Republican National Committee, is taking to leaders of the party in the west.

The exact purpose of Chairman Butler's across-the-continent tour has never been explained except by the statement that he is to "get in touch" with state committeemen.

Naturally he will receive suggestions as to the future course of the Republican party, especially with a view to the 1928 Presidential campaign, and will make preliminary plans for getting the party's local machinery in harmonious action when the campaign starts. But he is also taking a message to his henchmen, not a message to be shouted from the housetops just yet, but amessage to be quietly passed along where it will do most good.

TO SAVE OLD SCHOOL

A movement is on foot with the descendants of the Welsh Baptists who settled in the southwest of Berks county more than 100 years ago to raise 3,000 pounds to save the famous Octagonal schoolhouse at Sinking Spring from being converted ito a hot dog stand or gas station. The old structure was built in 1810 as a Baptist meeting house and later became a school. For 48 years Lewis Kerchner, a watchmaker, lived in it. Just recently his wife died and he is now planning on selling the building, so, inasmuch as the ancient landmark of the early Welsh pioneers of Berks county, located on the William Penn Highway, should never be eliminated, it is hoped that the Welsh of this district will help save it.

Eight Hour Shifts For Police May Be Called For

With summer near and the increased auto traffic on Sunday through the city there is a possibility that traffic police may be placed in heavy traffic lanes this summer.

Today Mayor William Dunlap said, that, as yet, he has not given the matter much attention but declared that should traffic conditions warrant action would be taken.

Another matter the mayor will soon have to consider is the rearrangement of police, should Governor John S. Fisher sign the bill passed by the legislature providing eight hour shifts for police.

Under present conditions, it is said that there are not sufficient police for New Castle and with the eight hour law, if signed, conditions would probably result in a plea later for more policemen.

Company B To Drill Thursday

All Members Of Company Are Directed To Report At 7:30 O'clock

Company B, 125th Engineers will hold its regular weekly drill Thursday evening, April 21 at 7:30 o'clock in the armory on Neshannock avenue. A full attendance of the members is desired and all members unable to be present are requested to call Lieutenant Paul W. Keely at Bell Phone 9175 and report to him.

Although Company B has not yet been mustered into the service, the members of the company are to be paid for the drills attended, the same as they would be if actually sworn into the service. It is therefore important to the individual as well as the company that there be a full attendance at these drills.

The rate of pay for members of the company runs from a dollar up, depending on their rank, some enlisted men receiving as high as $2.80 per drill. A member of Company B, receives for an hour and a half drill, the equivalent of a soldier's pay for an entire day in the regular army.

Part of the equipment for Company B's baseball team has been received and is exceptionally fine. The entire equipment will compare or surpass that of the average team of New Castle, regardless of what league it belongs to. Nothing but the best will be purchased and the team will make a fine appearance. The uniforms will be Blue and Gray and will have "Company B. 125th Enginers" on the front of the blouse. The team is practicing regularly, a practice being held last night with every member of the team present.

Here's Real Relief From the Torturing Pains of Neuritis

Men and Women Everywhere Seldom Fail To Get Quick Relief from Pain and Suffering

When you've tried everything you can think of and nothing seems to even relieve those piercing, agonizing pains, just go to some good druggist and get a bottle of Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2. Be sure you get No. 2 which comes in capsule form.

Take these little dark green capsules as directed and notice how in about 24 hours they have considerably reduced, if not entirely banished those persisting nerve racking pains that have caused you many sleepless nights.

While this particular formula was compounded for the purpose of conquering painful, Gouty conditions and what is known as Rheumatoid Arthritis—a knotty, painful swelling of the joints—it has proven wonderfully successful in most forms of Neuritis and Sciatic Nerve Pains.

You needn't be afraid of its containing dope of any kind—it doesn't. Such things are only makeshifts and can at the best give only partial relief.

Be sure you've got Neuritis and then get Allenrhu Special Formula No. 2—McKee's Kut Rate Store; Ellwood City agent, F. L. Schweitzer, sells lots of it.

Elopes With Teacher As She Waits Arrival Of Bridesmaids

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., April 20.—While Marian Dawes, daughter of William R. Dawes, president of the Chicago Association of Commerce and cousin of the vice president, waited at a railroad station here to meet bridesmaids arriving for her wedding April 30 to Gordon Butler Bilderback of Champaign, Bilderback yesterday eloped with Miss Gertrude Sergeant, 27, a pretty instructor in public speaking at the University of Illinois.

Miss Sergeant and Bilderback, an automobile salesman associated with his father here, were married at the court house in Urbana. Bilderback is a graduate of Yale, Miss Dawes of Wellesley and Miss Sergeant of the University of Michigan.

Mad Bull Tosses Young Man In Air

WASHINGTON, Pa., April 20.—Roger Chambers, 20, son of C. A. Chambers of near Canonsburg, is suffering from serious brusis and perhaps internal injuries received in an encounter with an infuriated bull on his father's farm.

Chambers probably owes his life to the fact that the bull, a young Jersey, had been dehorned. After being tossed violently about in the air several times and trampled, Chambers got hold of the ring in the beast's nose and held it until his father arrived and helped put the enraged bovine in the barn.

The young man had gone to the field to drive the bull into the barn to permit state highway engineers to make a preliminary survey for a road change.

Michigan Organizes Against Bandits

(International News Service)

DETROIT, Mich., April 20.—The entire state of Michigan is being organized by the Michigan Bankers Association against banking bandits.

According to plans being put into effect, there will be a system of alarms that will arouse the countryside as soon as a bank is robbed. Citizens will be deputized and as soon as they hear the alarm they will arm themselves and be on the alert for the bandits.

The idea is being greeted with approval by farmers where it has been presented, according to Paul J. Ulrich of Mt. Clemens, chairman for the state protective committee of the banker's association.

Claim Bell Gave Magee-Leslie Sums As Suitable Gifts

Resume Hearings In Financial Tangle Of John A. Bell

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, Pa., April 20.—Hearing before Watson B. Adair, referee in bankruptcy was resumed here today in an effort to unravel the tangled financial affairs of John A. Bell, bankrupt Carnegie banker.

The hearing, which centers about a federal income tax claim against Bell, has involved William A. Magee, former mayor of Pittsburgh, who maintained that Bell "backed" him with more than $280,000 that Magee might buy now worthless stock and "play" the stock market. Bell stood Magee's transactions, the latter said, because the Carnegie banker was obligated to him for favors.

Transactions of a similar manner on a smaller scale were revealed by state senator Max Leslie. The government contends that such transactions were in reality gifts from Bell and as such assessable. Exceptions to this claim were taken by James N. Jarvis, trustee in bankruptcy for the Bell estate.

Rebuilds Cabin Of Nancy Hanks

KEYSER, W. Va., April 20.—The first step in the reconstruction of the log cabin in which Nancy Hanks, mother of Abraham Lincoln, was born, was taken yesterday when members of the Nancy Hanks Memorial association gathered at the site on Mike's run, laid a cornerstone and replaced several of the original logs. The site is in the rugged hills of Mineral county, West Virginia, about 17 miles from Keyser.

Headed by Dr. William E. Barton who, after years of search, found the ruins of the cabin, delivered an address on the site, outlining his work from the time he found a record of the cabin in notes left by Abraham Lincoln.

It is expected that the entire cabin will be rebuilt within a few weeks.

Glimpses Of Nature

By OWEN PENFIELD FOX.

Mother nature is awakening from her long winter's sleep. Her magic wand every hour will be creating things of beauty. Forsythias slender stems bedecked with yellow flowers; Trailing Arbutus, the woodlands first beautifier, wafting its sweet perfume; and Adder's Tongue a-pushing through last season's leaves. Bough and Bush aflame with tender blossoms, green carpets will soon be studded with blue-eyed grasses, shrubs and mosses.

This beauty, created by a master hand, is very often without thought destroyed, and many of nature's most common flowers are now unknown, having vanished rapidly before the invasion of flower pickers.

So let us pause a moment while the bloom of spring is calling and let us enjoy its beauty, forgetting the temptation to gather armfuls of these tender blossoms that so soon fade and die after they are plucked.

Fire Chief Calvin Royce and Assistant Chief Thomas Ruddy, narrowly escaped death when they were showered by bricks when one of the walls caved in.

Make Decision In Temple Appeal

Zoning Board Hears Appeal In Temple Israel Building Case

REACH DECISION AGREEABLE TO ALL

At the special meeting of the Board of Zoning Appeals held Tuesday afternoon in the city council chamber, the appeal of Temple Israel Congregation from the decision of the city engineer, in refusing a permit for the construction of the fine new house of worship of the congregation, corner of Highland and Moody avenues, because of certain minor details in which the proposed building did not meet with the zoning regulations of the district in which it is to be erected, was heard.

The appeal was granted with the understanding that the east end of the proposed house of worship will be fifteen feet from Moody avenue sidewalk instead of ten feet as under the original application for a building permit.

The Temple Israel congregation was represented by Marcus Feuchtwanger, Norman Ehrlich, Bernard Kline and J. A. Altschuler, the latter also being the architect of the building. They presented the plans for the church, showing that it is to be a fine building, that will be a credit to the district in which it is located and of fine and pleasing proportions.

The only person appearing to take exception to the proposed plans was Charles J. Garwig of 329 East avenue, who stated that he was in no way opposed to the building, except as it varied from the street building line. His home is twenty-five feet from the sidewalk, while the church plans showed the east end of the building, which adjoins his property to be but ten feet from the sidewalk. the discussion was pleasant and a compromise was effected, which was very satisfactory to Mr. Garwig, by which the building, which will face Highland avenue, was moved north five feet, leaving fifteen feet between the building and sidewalk, at its east end and adjoining Moody avenue.

Mr. Feuchtwanger in behalf of Temple Israel congregation stated that it was the intention to give to the city such land as needed at the southwest corner of Highland and Moody avenues, which belongs to the congregation, for the purpose of rounding the corner the same as it is at Park avenue and Highland avenue. This generous offer is very satisfactory to the city.

Matthew Gunton, chairman of the board and Mrs. Florence Pearson, member of the board, heard the appeal and acted following the hearing. Attorney Frank A. Hover, the other member of the board was unable to be present. This was Mrs. Pearson's first meeting since January, she having been out of the city for some time.

Harding On Trial For Non-Support

MERCER, Pa., April 20.—M. J. Whieldon of Mercer is in Somerset Pa. interviewing the chief prosecuting attorney of that county and making preparations for the defense of Clyde Harding of New Vernon township this county who is now out on $3,000 bail charged with non-support of a bastard child born 14 years ago and being a fugitive from justice from a warrant sworn out at that time.

The chief prosecutor will have to elect one of these charges on which to prosecute Harding as both cannot be used it is stated by Mercer County attorneys.

An able defense was given Harding by the Mercer lawyer when he was tried in this court for the alleged murder of Wiley R. Mouck, his neighbor, at both the June sessions of 1926 when he was found guilty and again on January 1927 when after being granted a new trial he was found not guilty.

Woman's Club Will Observe Arbor Day

Trees Will Be Planted At Eight Schools On Friday

Some To Be Dedicated To Memory Of Local Residents Of Recent Years

The Woman's Club through its Education and Public Welfare department has planned to celebrate Arbor Day this year in a fitting manner by planting trees at the various schools.

The principals of the different schools in the city were consulted as to their needs in regard to trees for the school yards. Eight schools requested them and they have been allotted in proportion to their needs.

The committee after much deliberation, selected the European plane tree, which is somewhat like our sycamore and is a very fine shade tree. They were able to buy fine big trees at a very moderate price from a home grower.

Principals of the various schools have arranged fitting exercises to be held with the presentation of the trees. The ceremonies will take place at 3 p. m., Friday, April 22, and it is hoped many will attend.

At the West Side school the trees will be dedicated to the memory of Mrs. I. B. Griffith, and Miss Bell Braham, both former members of The Woman's Club, residents of that school, and women who worked all their lives for the betterment of their sex.

At the Pollock the trees will be dedicated to Mrs. John B. Hamme, state president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, who throughout her administration has stressed tree planting.

The following school will have exercises:

Thaddeus Stevens, three trees, presentation, Mrs. DeLace Cole.

Aiken, six trees, presentation, Mrs. John B. Offutt.

Rose avenue, eighteen trees, presentation, Mrs. B. M. Berger.

Lincoln-Garfield, three trees, presentation, Mrs. D. Duff Scott.

Pollock, three trees, presentation, Mrs. H. M. Kirk.

West Side, six trees, presentation, Mrs. C. B. Randall.

Lawrence, six trees, presentation, Mrs. O. P. Brown.

Mahoning, three trees, presentation, Mrs. C. J. Kirk.

The Dramatic Club is planning to present a literary and musical program at Portersville in the high school auditorium, on the evening of April 29. Two one-act plays will be given in addition to the literary and musical numbers by the members of the club. Pimples, Boils, Skin Eruptions

Skilled physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils and other skin eruptions as being an indication of an abnormal condition of the system. This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful annoyances by taking a course of S. S. S. You owe it to yourself to try S. S. S. It helps nature build up red corpuscles. It improves the processes by which the blood is nourished. It is time-tried and reliable.

"I suffered from impure blood—was weak, and I had lost so much weight I didn't look natural. I had pimples and was also bothered with a breaking out that itched terribly. I also had boils one after another. I tried different kinds of remedies, but nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to take S. S. S., which I did. This was some time ago. Now I feel well, and I am getting along fine. S. S. S. stopped the itching and it cured me of boils. I advise all weak and run-down people to give S. S. S. a trial. It clears up the skin and makes you strong and fills you with energy." Mrs. J. W. Barker, 1337 Walnut street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

S. S. S. is made from the fresh roots of medicinal herbs and plants and is prepared in a scientific way in a modern laboratory.

S. S. S. is sold at all good drug stores in two sizes. The larger size is more economical.

FARM FACTS

TIMELY REMINDERS From The Pennsylvania State College

Do Not Pasture Too Soon—Dairy cattle, cows or young stock should not be turned out to pasture until the ground is settled and the grass well started. Better pastures all summer and much more feed all summer will be realized from later starting.

Timber Is Valuable—As long as a strand of merchantable timber remains untouched, it is a liquid asset. This is a big advantage from a credit standpoint. Farms with merchantable young growing timber sell much more readily than those without timber. In many districts a farm from which the timber has been stripped is almost unsalable. April 24 to 30 is American Forest Week. Do something to save the farm wood lot and start new trees.

Grow Quality Products—Successful fruit growers find that they must prune efficiently, spray consistently, thin better, grade severely and pack their product honestly and attractively. The buying public demands more and more each year that products be of high quality. Pennsylvania State College fruit specialists remind us.

Keep Porkers Growing—When the pigs are about two weeks old they will begin to crack some corn. Give them some to nibble on. Also let them share some of the brood sow's slop and grain as soon as possible. Putting the little pigs on full feed at the earliest opportunity permits them to grow and develop rapidly. Then they will not miss the sow at weaning time.

Save Forests from Fire—Fires have done more damage to forests than all other agencies combined. The menace can be stopped by the exercise of reasonable care on the part of those who use or travel through the woodlands. Prevent forest fires. It pays!

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

MENU HINT.

Are you a "dessert" family, or do you dispense with the sweet that is supposed to finish the meal? If you are a homemaker for one of those families that always expects a pie, pudding or cake you will be glad of a new recipe or a revised one. Bread pudding is a favorite in some families, in others it is looked upon as a necessary evil. By adding chocolate to it, however, you will probably get your family not only to accept it without a murmur, but to clamor for it.

Lamb Chops Potatoes au Gratin
Carrots and Celery
Endive with Spicy Dressing
Chocolate Bread Pudding
Tea or Coffee

TODAY'S RECIPES

Chocolate Bread Pudding—Two cups stale bread crumbs, four cups scalded milk, three squares chocolate, one-half cup water, one cup brown sugar, two eggs, beaten, one-half teaspoon salt, one teaspoon vanilla, one-fourth teaspoon cinnamon. Soak bread in milk thirty minutes. Cook the chocolate with the water until smooth. Add to crumbs with other ingredients. Bake in one large mold in hot water in moderate oven (375 F.) until set. Serve with Sterling sauce (a hard sauce made with brown sugar) or with whipped cream.

SUGGESTIONS

Warm It.

When the butter you wish to cream for cake or cookies is very hard add two tablespoons boiling water, then deduct this amount from other liquids used. Beat sugar, butter and water hard with a spoon and mixture will become a light, creamy mass in a much shorter time than it would otherwise.

OHIO COTTAGE OWNER SLEW VISITOR, FLED, HIS WIFE CONFESSES

CLEVELAND, April 20.—A drinking bout with the owner of a little cottage east of Chagrin Falls, near here, with whom he had become acquainted by chance, led to the slaying of John C. Compton, Jr., 31, last Sunday night, police said today after they had arrested and obtained a confession from the wife of the cottage owner. The husband could not be found nor did his wife know his whereabouts.

The woman said Compton and her husband got into a fight in which the husband knocked Compton down and killed him by trampling the falling man's head under his heels. Compton was employed by a watch manufacturer.

Male Chorus Of Sixty Voices To Feature Show

"The Student Prince" Has Many Tuneful And Memorable Melodies

Featuring the presentation here at the Scottish Rite Cathedral on May 3, of the famed musical operetta "The Student Prince" will be the wonderful picked male chorus of sixty voices. The tuneful melodies, which this chorus presents, will be well worth the effort necessary to secure tickets to attend the event.

The Student Prince is developed about the love story of Prince Karl and Kathie, the little maiden of Heidleberg, far beneath him in all save heart and soul and the story gains greatly by being set to music, which has been supplied by Sigmund Romberg. The book and lyrics are by Dorothy Donnelly.

Prominent in the cast are Lucius Metz, as Prince Karl, Ellz Gergely as Kathie, Vernon Jacobson, Leo Stark, Cornelia Ellis, Sarah Edwards, Sylvia deFranke, Leslie Stowe, Tom Ryan, Granville Bates, Rox Carter and others.

The fact that it is a Shubert production is sufficient endorsement for most theatre goers.

Electrical Storm Does Damage In Ellwood

Power Is Put Out Of Commission At The Shelby Rooming House

Miss Helen Burton Is Shocked While At Her Home On First Street

ELLWOOD CITY, April 20.—Last night about 11 o'clock Ellwood City experienced one of the worst electrical storms in its history. Atmospheric eruptions started with a wild wind storm, blowing down trees and damaging telephone wires.

About 11:30 the eerie drone of the fire siren sounded to a call from the Shelby rooming house when the building was struck. The lightning, while doing no damage to the building, badly frightened the lodgers and completely destroyed the electric power plant located in the basement.

Miss Helen Burton, head of the Community Service League here, was talking on the telephone at her home, 216 First street, which is near the Tube Mill, when the house was struck, badly shocking Miss Burton. First reports were that she was badly burned, but a notice from the Community Service League this morning stated that she is resting easily, victim of shock.

This action will fill a long-felt need in Ellwood City as the Shelby courts have been too crowded in the summer seasons to permit all to enjoy the game of tennis.

Rogers Attends Western Movie

Mayor Of Beverly Hills Takes An Hour To Look Over Movie Show Here

Because of the fact that his wife was in Pittsburgh yesterday Will Rogers got into New Castle late and left immediately after his appearance in the Scottish Rite Cathedral.

The cowboy comedian got into New Castle at six o'clock and the first thing he asked for was not where to get something to eat, but where he could find a western movie. One of his close personal friends, Fred Thompson is being shown in a local theatre and here Rogers spend the time between his arrival and time for the lecture.

Immediately after he finished his lecture in the Cathedral he left for Pittsburgh by automobile. He is booked to appear in McKeesport, Pa., and Washington, Pa., before he leaves for New York City.

PETERS ADVENTURES IN ANIMAL LAND

By Florence Smith Vincent

HIDDEN TREASURES

"Tamias, Tamais!" Peter repeated the words several times. "Well that is not a very hard name to remember. I am glad you told me, Chipmunk. Sometimes I might have heard someone speaking of you as Mr. Tamias and never have known he meant my old friend Chipmunk. Hey there, where are you off to now?"

Chipmunk flirted his tail for answer and disappeared over the far side of the bars. In a moment though his bright eyes peeped above the lowest rail and in shorter time than it takes to tell it, the little red elf had frisked back to his perch on the fence and staring very closely at him, Peter thought he looked very queer—certainly his face was fatter!

"What makes your cheeks puff out like that, old fellow?" asked he. Have you something in your mouth?"

"Have I?" chuckled Chipmunk. "I should say so. I never waste time in looking at nothing. All the while I was thinking I was peering this way and that hoping to find something to add to my larder and then I spied a heap of withered leaves. 'Ah, ha!' thought I. 'Suppose there should be a nut hidden under there—a nut that had lain undiscovered since last autumn because it had rolled under a burdock bush and been covered up by the drifting leaves. I shall soon find out.' And I did. Not one nut, but two fine, large ones were hidden there, just as I hoped, and on the way back to the fence I spied a red checker berry that someway had escaped my notice till then. So I tucked them all into my pouch and I am going to take them home and store them in the pantry."

"Well, you are the right sort of a steward to have," exclaimed Peter. "The family wouldn't be very well taken care of, though, if you ate up everything you found. You are an unselfish Chipmunk!"

"Thank you," said Chipmunk modestly. "I try to do my best. But I am no better at my business than is my wife at hers. She is a wonderful housekeeper—none better in Chipmunkdom. I just wish you could see what a cosy home we have."

"Well, and why can't I?"

Peter's question, unexpected as it was, delighted the little red elf.

"Chip! Chip! Do you really want to visit my home? Do you mean it? Well, well, I never should have thought it, but I am so pleased. Never have I heard of a two-legs as a guest in the house of a Tamias. Wife and I will be the first to entertain such a distinguished visitor. Will you come right along with me now or were you thinking of making us a call some other day?"

"If you please I'd like to come right now," declared Peter.

Chipmunk sat up on his haunches and clapped his front paws.

"You may be a human, but I declare you have some of the Chipmunk sense," cried he. "I never believe in putting off until tomorrow what I can do today. Who knows—perhaps there may never be a tomorrow. Let's start this minute. Some fellows might think they ought to run ahead and let their wives know company was coming so their wives could 'straighten up' a bit, but wife keeps our house in order all the time so she'll not mind an unexpected caller. My home is over on the woodlot. Follow me—just keep my tail in sight—and we'll be there in a short while. And be sure—whatever you do—keep an eye open for trouble and if you see anything moving except me, run! Never mind me, but run! I can take care of myself."

JACK DEMPSEY MAY GET MATCH WITH PAOLINO

Maloney-Sharkey Battle May Be Given "Fade-Out"

NEW YORK AWAITS RICKARD'S MOVE

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
Sports Editor International News Service

NEW YORK, April 20.—Jack Dempsey against Paolino Uzcudun, proponent of the anti-Joyce Kilmer movement, on or about July 4 and let the worst man forget the future, will be Tex Rickard's reply to the New York commission's action in throwing the Paolino-Jack Delaney thing over the transom to die in its own blood. That, anyhow, was the word today from Madison Square Garden, where they are awaiting Rickard's early return to the land of the sky blue cheek bone.

From the same source came the rumor that the great run-around, known as the Jimmy Maloney-Jack final, may be allowed to go by default, or at least suffer an indefinite postponement, because both boys have proved themselves natural born penmen.

Maloney Signed Up.

They apparently have signed contracts with great abandon, according to existing advices, Maloney is pledged to fight Johnny Risko in Cleveland and Tom Heeney in Boston before the Sharkey date on May 19 and, while it can be done, the betting is that it won't be. Sharkey also is alleged to be under contract for an early appearance in Boston, the result being that Rickard and his May 19 engagement are being badgered by injunctions, liens, threats and promises.

The worst of it is that the match doesn't look the part of a hot shot here, anyhow. So they say Rickard, having heard secretly from Dempsey, is almost ready to forget the incident.

As a matter of fact, the situation is a perfect "out" for the gentleman, if there is anything in these persisting rumors that a return engagement between Dempsey and Tunney is ordained. All he needs for another $1,800,000 harvest is the build up of Dempsey and Tex could travel over land and sea, a thousand miles or more and he's never find a corner stone like Paolino on the floor.

Dempsey, paying off only twenty cents on the physical dollar, should pop that bird over in the first few minutes of play and, after that, you couldn't stop the riot at the turnstiles with a machine gun.

But suppose Paolino won? I asked that question around the Garden today with the notion of finding out whether some imbecile thought the three assassins could be tossed in with Tunney.

It seemed not, however, and here is where Messrs. Maloney and Sharkey were to provide their excuse for breathing. This match, they said, would be lifted down from the shelf, carefully dusted off, exposed to public view and the winner matched with Paolino. The ultimate survivor then would get Tunney.

And the more I think of that remark the more I am reminded of the man who got pneumonia.

He Fills A Big Gap — By Feg Murray

In all the excitement over the grand and gala opening of the New Giants at the Polo Grounds today, there is one athlete who should not be overlooked—Edd. J. Roush. The cynosure of all eyes will undoubtedly be the world famous stock and bond man, Rogers Hornsby, but do not forget that there are others worthy of notice in the team that McGraw has put together for his jubilee pennant bid. Burleigh Grimes, George Harper, Al Devormer and Bevo Le Bourveau, are well worth a couple of looks apiece, and Edd Roush is worth five or six. It wouldn't surprise me at all if Roush stole all of Hornsby's thunder in today's game, for he has been playing superlative ball for years without getting half the credit that is due him.

Even Roush's record since 1916, when he was traded with the immortal "Matty" and Bill McKechnie to the Reds for Herzog and Wade Killifer, does not do him justice. Ten straight years with Cincinnati and only batting as low as .321 once, and that year leading his league anyway, and for the second time! Never has the versatile Edd made 200 hits or scored 100 runs in one season, yet his yearly average is always close to those figures, and for four straight years with the Reds he batted .350.

These figures by themselves don't show that Roush finished second or third in batting in the National League on three occasions, once losing the leadership of the circuit to Zack Wheat only because a game in which he made three hits was thrown out. Nor do they show that the size of the ball park at Cincinnati, where each year he had to play half the season's games, certainly did not help him get any hits, whereas certain other batters were aided greatly by the short fences in their home parks.

John McGraw may have acquired a giant rival for Babe Ruth when he got Rogers Hornsby, but F. C. Lane, in the "Baseball Magazine," says that the quiet, studious, persevering Roush, who is conspicuously lacking in the fine art of showmanship, is a greater outfielder than Babe Ruth ever will be, a better base-runner, and a more scientific batter!

SPORTS DONE BROWN

By NORMAN E. BROWN

The problem of filling Tris Speaker's outfielding shoes on the Cleveland ball club has not been solved definitely. The task isn't that simple. But Cleveland fans are about ready to vote that Mr. Bernie Neis discarded by this, that and the other big league club, is doing a fair job of it right now.

He got away to a good start in the opening game and a couple of days later staged one of the busiest and most efficient bits of centerfielding that the home town fans have seen in years—including those during which Spoke the Speaker roamed the garden.

The afternoon was spent with the Chicago White Sox. A checkup on Neis' activities for the nine innings reads as follows:

SECOND INNING—Went to his right for Ward's fly.

THIRD INNING—Went back for Lyon's hard drive; came dashing in to take Peck's fly to short center.

FOURTH INNING—Went toward the wall grab Sheely's drive, and his throw to third turned Falk back to second.

FIFTH INNING—Went back toward the bleachers for Ward's wicked punch.

SIXTH INNING—Took Kamm's easy fly and then chased into left center for Peck's liner.

EIGHTH INNING—Went back and to his left for Barrett's sacrifice fly, holding Kamm on third.

NINTH INNING—Took Crouse's sacrifice fly, and wound up his efforts for the day by invading left field to capture Peck's drive.

Now not all these chances were thrillers. They've all been done before. But the fact that Neis came within two putouts of the record set up by Happy Felsh of the White Sox indicates that Bernie was busy. And the fact that he handled his chances as they came without a bobble speak loudly in his praise.

Incidentally the real reason for Neis drawing the preference over young George Gerken for the honor of starting the season in centerfield for the Indians is interesting enough to chronicle.

Gerken, a rookie from the Decatur club of the Three Eye League, played brilliant ball in centur during the spring training trip down south and through most of the exhibition games. On the trip north he became ill. The Indian bosses first realized that he was off form when he fanned three times in an exhibition frolic.

The possibility that he might not be in shape for the opening game presented itself. But the deciding factor, it seems, was the fact that Gerken had never played batters against a double-decked stand for a background. Manager McCallister realized this. He weighed the matter more from Gerken's standpoint. He figured that should the youngster become confused before the huge stands and crowd and get away to a bad start the unfortunate debut might handicap him later. Neis, therefore drew the assignment.

Auto Racing Stars Entered In 500-Mile Indianapolis Classic

By ROBERT W. GINSBURG
International News Service Staff Correspondent

INDIANAPOLIS, April 20.—Indianapolis is getting ready to welcome its visitors who will come here for the world's greatest motor classic—the 500-mile sweepstakes race—held here annually on May 30.

Interest in the race, that lies dormant here throughout the year, has begun to show signs of fire that will later blaze into a flame of enthusiasm as the great day approaches.

Merchants of this city have begun checking up to see how many lap prizes each will account for each day. It has been customary to give $100 to the winner of each lap around the brick bowl, aside from the usual cash prizes for winning and placing in the race.

Already approximately twenty entries have been received at the offices of the Indianapolis Motor Speedway, from drivers and owners of racing cars all over the United States.

Entries Coming In

Harry Hartz, veteran Los Angeles racer, was the first to send in his bid for admission to the event. Hartz finished second to Frank Lockhart last year, when the young California dirt track driver swept to victory as the race was called on account of rain. It was the first time in the history of the motor classic the race had ended before going the full 500-mile limit.

Hartz will pilot a front drive racer he is reported to be building at his winter home in Los Angeles. He is considered one of the strongest contenders for the laurels this year.

Jack LeCain, manager of the Rockingham Motor Speedway at Salem, N. H. was another entry announced here. LeCain will not drive his car, however, but will superintend the piloting of a Duesenberg special from the pits. The veteran racer is not a stranger to the brick oval here. The last time he sat at the steering wheel of a racer here, he was taken back to town in an ambulance.

Another veteran speeder announced was Dave Lewis, 43-year-old driver who won the honors of piloting the first front drive car to a victory. He also was the first to enter a front-drive car in the racing game. Lewis failed to finish last year because of motor trouble.

Frank Elliot, another old timer in the racing game, has sent in his entry blank too. Although he has never won a race here but is reported to be making a strong bid for the honors this year.

Efforts are being made to have three cars brought here from England, to be entered by Major Seagrave, who broke all speed records at Daytona Beach track this spring with his famous 1,000 horse power Mystery S.

There will be no dearth of fast drivers, however. When the cars start around the track on the morning of Memorial Day, at least 35 cars are expected to be in line, attaches of the speedway offices here say. The limit for entries is midnight May 2.

Improving Track

The Speedway officials have been working on the track for some time, preparing entrances, building additional roadways and replacing faulty bricks on the track proper. Efforts are being made to accommodate and handle the huge crowds that come here for the annual event with greater facility than ever before.

One improvement this year is the completion of an additional grandstand section. This was made necessary by a tremendous demand for seats. Already all grandstand seats have been sold, and seats in the bleachers are all that are left, attaches of the speedway offices say.

The same size motor—91 1-2 cubic inches displacement—will be required this year. Last year was the first time such engines appeared on the tracks and accounted for a great deal of the trouble met by the drivers, with a year in which to perfect the power plants, the race this time is expected to prove the merit of the small motors.

Boston Braves Down Giants Twice In Bunker Hill Day Games

RED SOX STOP YANKEE STREAK

By LES CONKLIN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 20.—Boston, city of cod, culture and censorship, today basked in the glare of baseball's spotlight. For the two big league teams representing the staid and effete back bay, where robins chirp with an accent and even the oil is refined, went on a devastating rampage yesterday with the two New York clubs as the victims. The Red Sox, in winning their first game of the season, snapped the Yankees' streak of six straight victories, while the Braves captured both twins on a twin bill with the Giants.

The Braves were celebrating Patriots' Day and they made a thorough job of it. They sped around the bases like Paul Revere and shelled Pitchers Greenfield and Grimes all the way from Bunker Hill to Lexington. The scores were 9 to 5 and 5 to 4, the Braves advancing to a tie with the Phillies for second place, the Giants dropping to fourth.

Southpaw Hal Wiltse engineered the Red Sox to victory over the Yankees, 6 to 3. The Yanks still lead the league by a comfortable margin, however. The Pirates increased their lead in the National League, although their game with the Cubs was postponed.

Jess Haines turned in another fine performance and the Cardinals slaughtered the Reds, 9 to 1. Hugh Critz broke into the Cincinnati lineup, having won his fight for a $12,000 contract.

Jack Scott of the Phillies had everything except the grippe and blanked Brooklyn, 4 to 0. It was Brooklyn's seventh straight defeat and Dazzy Vance was the victim. Cy Williams got his third homer of the season and leads the circuit clouters of both leagues.

Ty Cobb stole home with the bases full as the Athletics downed the Senators, 3 to 1. Ehmke was the winning twirler.

The St. Louis Browns vaulted into second place by trouncing the White Sox, 7 to 5. O'Rourke, obtained by the Browns from the Tigers, led the hitters with four safe wallops. Ernie Nevers, the ex-football star, blanked the Sox for four innings, but weakened thereafter and was retired to the sidelines.

Detroit took advantage of Cleveland's errors and beat the Indians, 8 to 5, winning the series. Lefty Miller of the Indians tried to do some relief pitching, but was a total bust, while Lil' Stoner managed to stagger through nine innings for the Tigers.

Trans-Oceanic Telephone Service Settles Down To Normal Basis

"Curiosity Calls" Drop As Novelty Wears Off—Business Satisfactory

By JAMES L. KILGALLEN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 20.—Trans-oceanic telephone service has settled down to a normal, routine basis which is gradually being developed, an official of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company said today.

New York to London calls are being made at the rate of from ten to twenty-five each day.

Other zone points, such as Kansas City, New Orleans, Minneapolis, San Francisco and Cleveland are doing a "normal" although not heavy business.

No longer are "curiosity calls" being put through. The calls now being made have to do with actual business or are social in nature.

A daily business between cotton exchanges in New Orleans and Birmingham, Eng., is being done in "satisfactory volume."

Fighting Static

The telephone people are striving to eliminate static and report progress in this direction. Of course a great deal depends upon the atmospheric conditions on the day the call is put in.

Officials of the company were reluctant to discuss the possibility of any immediate decrease in rates, saying they are concentrating their attention on improving the service. The present rate from New York to London is $75 for three minutes and $25 for each additional minute. Westward in the United States the price mounts in $3 steps until the Pacific Coast is reached where the rate of $87 for the first three minutes and $29 for each additional minute.

With the spring travel season on there has been a noticeable increase in calls from this country to ports such as Southampton and Liverpool.

The service was inaugurated on January 7, this year, and reached a stable basis about the first of April. Recently one hour was added to the daily service period between New York and London. Heretofore calls between New York and London had been made between 8:30 a. m. and 1 p. m. On April 10 the service was started at 7:30 closing at 1 o'clock.

The telephone company is also working hard to develop commercial possibilities for Television. "seeing over the telephone," a demonstration of which was made not long ago when persons in New York saw and talked with persons in Washington.

To Use Television

Officials of the company say that the first commercial use to which Television will be put probably will be the broadcasting of prize fights It is believed that some time in the future it will be practical to exhibit for example, in a Chicago or San Francisco theatre or hall, a championship fight as it takes place in New York.

There is, however, the possibility, that inauguration of such a service might result in legal difficulties as in some cases transmission of the fight pictures over the telephone might violate interstate laws with reference to the traffic in fight films.

The work of development of Television is largely under the direction of Dr. Herbert E. Ives. There is some talk of the company ultimately establishing "television stations" in a few leading cities of the country, and gradually extending the list. Dr. Ives said the company though there must be "plenty of people willing to pay for the privilege of seeing the person they talk to," and that the general reason behind the Television research now under way was the corporation's policy "of doing everything possible to further communication between the people."

May Name Mussolini Italian Chancellor

LONDON, April 20.—Reports of the possibility of a proclamation creating Premier Mussolini as the first chancellor of Italy being issued tomorrow on the anniversary of the founding of Rome were current here today.

The reports, which are as yet unconfirmed, state that the chancellorship would be based upon the German Bismarckian pattern and that the chancellor would be responsible to the king and not to the Parliament. The cabinet at the same time would be responsible to the chancellor and might be dismissed by him at will.

One report is that the proclamation will also create "the Empire of Italy".

Golden Pheasants Are Proving Pests To Iowa Farmers

(International News Service)

DES MOINES, Ia., April 20.—Golden pheasants, brought into Iowa several years ago in the belief that they will kill insects and thereby aid crops, are proving, in the opinion of many, as great a pest locally as the English sparrow is nationally.

There is no open season on the birds, and aside from a three-day period last fall, hunters have not been permitted to kill them. In that short time thousands were killed in the northern counties where they flourish.

At each session of the legislature efforts are made to have an annual open season declared on the birds, but without any results being obtained. Farmers declare the birds do far more damage than good. This contention is somewhat borne out by the fact that the legislature this year allowed claims of $8,500 for damage done by the birds to farmers' crops. One man testified he had lost 12 acres of corn through the depredations of the pheasants, and declared many of his neighbors had suffered even heavier losses. Besides eating corn, they kill young chickens and turkeys, it was stated.

CHRYSLER

FOURTH IN DOLLAR VOLUME OF SALES BY REASON OF PUBLIC ENDORSEMENT

WHEN Chrysler came three years ago, it was felt in the industry that types and styles of engineering design, appearance and performance, were so set and established that the public would never flock to follow a new standard.

Yet almost instantly the public recognized in that first Chrysler a new vision and a new measure of value.

This initial interest has since swelled into a veritable tidal wave of enthusiastic acceptance, which in the last six months of last year and the first few months of this, has completely overturned the previous alignment in the industry and lifted Chrysler up from 27th to 4th place.

In volume of sales Chrysler now stands next to a large independent manufacturer and two units of a corporate group.

The mere fact itself is so tremendous and so impressive—so clearly an expression of public choice—so directly due to the discernment of the average man and woman in judging finer appearance, performance and value—that there is no need to draw a moral.

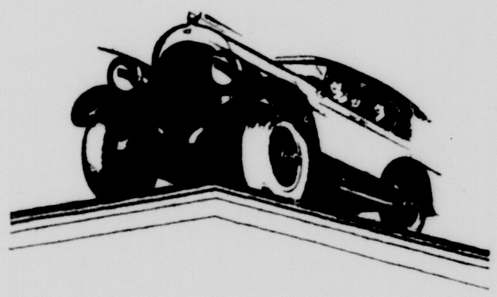

Once more people have proven that they will always seek out the individual operator who disregards outworn principles and practices and brings them something unmistakably new, unmistakably progressive, and unmistakably superior in service.

Chrysler is now fourth in money volume of sales—preceded only by that other great individual manufacturer who gave the world standardized quantity—as Walter P. Chrysler introduced Standardized Quality—and two individual units of the largest combination in the industry.

IT PAYS

We are frequently asked if it pays to spend so much time in reconditioning and inspecting our used cars before they are offered for sale. The answer is that a great many of our used car purchasers come back when they want new cars. Doesn't that pay?

HIGH LIGHTS OF HISTORY

The Battle of Perryville.

by J. CARROLL MANSFIELD

Registered U. S. Patent Office.

WHILE BRAGG'S CONFEDERATE ARMY WAS MARCHING NORTHWARD INTO KENTUCKY, GEN. BUELL, AT MURFREESBORO, TENN., LEARNED FROM INTERCEPTED DISPATCHES THAT LOUISVILLE AND NOT NASHVILLE, WAS HIS OPPONENT'S OBJECTIVE. BUELL AT ONCE SET OUT FOR LOUISVILLE, REACHING THAT PLACE AHEAD OF THE CONFEDERATES.

AT LOUISVILLE, BUELL RECRUITED HIS ARMY TO NEARLY 60,000 AND MOVED SOUTHWARD TO OPPOSE BRAGG'S ADVANCE. THE LATTER, HEAVILY OUTNUMBERED, FELL BACK TO SPRINGFIELD AND ORDERED KIRBY SMITH'S DIVISION TO ABANDON FRANKFORT AND JOIN HIM AT PERRYVILLE.

BRAGG REACHED PERRYVILLE ON SEPT. 7TH (1862), WITH THE UNION ARMY CLOSE BEHIND. ALTHOUGH NEITHER SIDE WAS PREPARED FOR ACTION, A BATTLE WAS FOUGHT THE NEXT DAY, THE CONFEDERATES LOSING 3,400 MEN AND THE FEDERALS 4,200.

BRAGG RETREATED TO HARRODSBURG, WHERE HE EFFECTED A JUNCTION WITH KIRBY SMITH. BUELL DID NOT PURSUE AND THE CONFEDERATES RETURNED TO EASTERN TENNESSEE WITH A VAST QUANTITY OF CAPTURED MATERIAL.

N. Y. STOCKS

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 20—The railroad, motor and mercantile stocks led a moderate rally in prices at the beginning of trading today. Hudson motors topped 77 in active buying, which market rumors attributed to William C. Durant and associates. The rubber and tire stocks continued their forward movement, while short covering in the oil stocks was stimulated by the 25,000-barrel daily decline in crude oil production last week, as reported by the American Petroleum Institute.

Call money was in good supply at 4 percent, with offerings reported at 3½ per cent, in the outside market. The commodity markets were practically unchanged, though mid-continent crude oil was cut for the sixth time this year and the Chicago wholesale gasoline markets showed a fractional decline.

Missouri Pacific common and preferred led a brilliant advance in the so-called southwestern merger group of railroad stocks. Texas and Pacific jumped 4 points to 79½. Pullman led the equipments, with a 5-point advance. Abraham and Straus, Montgomery Ward and other of the "store" stocks were in demand at higher prices, while copper stocks, tobaccos and sugars were active and strong.

Gas Fumes Fatal To Three In Family At Wilmington, Del.

Family Of Three Found Dead, Believed Killed 48 Hours Ago

(International News Service)

The dead: Long, 65; his daughter Lillian, 17, and a relative, Miss Mafy McMahan, 55, who was living with them.

Illuminating gas was escaping from an open jet in the basement. Members of the family had not been seen for two days.

Police expressed the belief the deaths were accidental.

U. S. Has Spent Three Billions For Merchant Ships

Ten-Year Undertaking In Effort To Build Foreign Trade Is Costly

Cargo Lines Now Cover Principal Routes In World Commerce

By COLE E. MORGAN
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 20—In the 10 years that it has been undertaking to establish an American Merchant Marine, the United States government has expended more than $3,500,000,000 of public funds in that endeavor.

For this outlay the government today has:

One high-speed trans-Atlantic passenger line of six ships, the United States Lines, operating directly under Shipping Board management between New York and the principal ports of Western Europe.

One passenger-cargo line, between New York and Europe.

Twenty-two cargo lines, covering the principal trade routes in which the United States has built up a foreign trade.

These 24 lines have 345 ships in service. All except the United States Lines are operated under operator manager agreements between the Emergency Fleet Corporation and American shipping firms with the government guaranteeing any operating losses.

An additional 500 ships under Shipping Board control are tied up at docks and in ship yards where they have been practically since the world war.

Many Ships Scrapped

Since 1920 the Shipping Board has put 22 passenger-cargo ships, the "President" type and 1085 cargo vessels into the hands of private owners, receiving $80,000,000 for them. It is estimated that about half of these are in operation. Most of the others have been scrapped for such salvage as they would yield.

On January 1, 1927, according to Shipping Board records, there were 1,450 vessels of 1,000 gross tons or more in actual operation flying the American flag. Of these 737 were in the foreign trade and 713 in the coastwise and intercoastal domestic trade.

Of the approximately 1,100 privately operated ships under American registry, 323 are tankers owned by the Standard and other big oil companies, 100 being engaged in foreign trade and 223 in the domestic coastwise service.

Passenger vessels number 152 of which 29 are in foreign service, 31 in the West Indies and Carribbean and 92 in the coastwise service.

Cargo vessels, numbering 616, include 144 in the foreign trade, 75 in the West Indies and Carribbean and 397 in the coastal service.

Private Interest

Many of these privately owned vessels were in operation before government launched its merchant marine development program in 1917. Others have been built by private owners since that time.

Total original appropriations and allotments by Congress to the United States Shipping Board and the Emergency Fleet Corporation up to and including the fiscal year ending June 30, 1927, aggregate $3,620,965,426. Unexpended balances from these appropriations returned to the United States Treasury amount of $53,959,420. Thus the net outlay at the end of the present fiscal year is figured at $3,567,006,006.

Administrative expenses of the Shipping Board from 1917 to 1927 inclusive have consumed $5,296,040. The Emergency Fleet Corporation has spent the rest.

Berlin Scientists Get Electricity From Ocean Bed

(International News Service)

BERLIN, April 20—To obtain electric current from sea water is claimed to have been made possible by the discovery of two Berlin scientists, Dr. Meineke, professor at the Technical High school of Berlin, and engineer Dr. Braeuer.

In years of scientific research the scientists succeded in making use of the varying temperatures of sea water near the surface and further below, especially in tropical sites. The difference of temperature between the water on the surface and that near the ground amounts to about twenty-five degrees of Celsius. If warm water is pumped into power stations it can be used to transform liquid carbonic acid into carbonic acid gas. This liquefied again by cold water pumped from the sea. Thus fuel and cooling is done by sea water without any additional concrete fuel. The energies produced during this process can, according to the Berlin inventors, be turned into electric energies in specially constructed power stations.

UNCLE SAM RESCUES MISSISSIPPI'S VICTIMS

The vessel is seen hastily putting out small boats to save the lives of persons trapped by the breaking of a levee near Dorena, Mo., causing a 10-foot wall of water to pour through a 200-foot gap, inundating a rich cotton section, 60 miles long and from 20 to 30 miles wide, thows sailors of the "Kankakee" rescuing women and children. Cascade Park Begins To Awaken After Long Winter Sleep

Cascade Park is a picture of spring and within a few short weeks a multitude of beautiful flowers will be imbibing of the sun, stately trees will careen with the breeze and the laughter of many persons will be heard in New Castle's natural playground.

Thousands of flowers, of all kinds, housed in greenhouses during snow-bound months are ready for transplanting and as soon as weather conditions permit they will be placed in beds about the park.

Buds are breaking forth into foliage on willows, maples, oaks, pine, poplar and other trees and fanned by spring breezes, and kissed by sun, they soon will provide foliage for heat sufferers.

Cascade Park lake, a beautiful expanse of water ordinarily, has been drained and sand which was washed into the lake is being removed so that water can again be turned into the lake for boating.

Ashes have been placed in the parking ground section and within a week the ruts, caused by rushing waters from winter's snow melting will have been filled.

Buildings have been painted green and white and Rainbow Terrace has been enhanced in beauty. Lattice boards have been built along the rails of the huge dance pavilion.

Among the new concessions under construction is Rainbow tunnel. It is a ride and will cost about $20,000. The Jack Davis Amusement company, composed of local citizens, is making the improvement.

A bridge at the Fun-House of Billy Glenn, crossing the Gorge, connects with the Glen pool where a place for spectators and new entrances are being constructed.

The old bath-house at the loop has been dismantled and in its place has arisen two uptodate lavatories which will contain washrooms, bathrooms and large mirrors.

One hundred tons of limestone will be placed on the Midway and other lanes leading to and from various sections of the park and three car trains instead of two, will operate on the Gorge ride this year.

The concrete wall at the eastern end of the lake has been removed and oarsmen will be able to row their boats up to Picnic grove, or the bridge when the season gets under way.

Diphtheria Most Serious Disease

Health Department Gives Some Facts Concerning Disease In State

In connection with the campaign against Diphtheria being carried out in the city and county schools during the next few weeks, the Pennsylvania State Health Department wish to bring before the people of the terribleness of the disease with little children.

Dr. H. C. Harper, medical director of the county furnishes the following information that the Bureau of Child Health of the State Department of Health have secured.

Diphtheria is the most deadly of all diseases of childhood. It is present in all communities at all times, especially late fall and early spring.

It is a disease that is communicated from one child to another. The germs are coughed and breathed from one child to another, either directly or they are lodged on objects handled by the second child (pencil, books, toys, etc.)

The younger the child, the more deadly the disease.

The yearly average reported sick from Diphtheria in Pennsylvania from 1914 to 1923 is 16,134, 85 per cent of whom were children.

The average mortality for these years was 1,751.

The average age of the child that died, 3 1-2 years.

Most of those that got a doctor early and were properly treated, got well. Most of those that delayed in getting a doctor died.

The disease often begins in the nose before it affects the throat.

Every child with a running nose that makes the upper lip sore and every child that has a sore throat should be suspected of having Diphtheria and should see a doctor.

CLIMATE HERE IS HELP TO CATARRH

Experts Say Three in Every Five People Suffer From This Disease

Experts on catarrh say the climate of this part of the country is one of the chief reasons why catarrh is so prevalent here. Experts state that catarrh is so prevalent in this section that as many as three out of every five people suffer from the disease and its distressing symptoms, which are dripping into the throat of a poisonous acid, offensive substance, a great deal of which is swallowed and enters the stomach, discharge from the nose of large quantitites of this same substance, pains the head, huskiness, dryness and soreness of nasal passages and throat, weak, watery eyes and the like.

World's Tonic offers catarrh sufferers something they have long needed, that is, a systemic treatment for catarrh. It relieves almost at once the distress of catarrh in the nose and throat and at the same time fights the disease within the system, where it originates, and is designed to rid the system of catarrh. It has brought astonishing results in many cases. World's Tonic, the new systemic treatment that is doing so much good in New Castle and vicinity, is sold by McKee's, Eckerd's, Paisley's, Smith's, and all other good druggists. (248)

Dr. Parkhurst, 85, Weds Widow, 65

Couple Overcome Fear Of Publicity After 20-Year Courtship

LOS ANGELES, April 20.—Fear of publicity, which kept them apart for several years, was banished here yesterday and Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst, 85, veteran reform leader and vice crusader, and Mrs. Eleanor Marx, 65, both of New York, were quietly married.

The wedding followed a friendship of twenty years.

The couple would speak little of their marriage except to admit that the fear of publicity they believed would attend their wedding in New York caused them to come to California where few people would know them.

The wedding would have taken place some years ago had not both feared publicity, they said.

Dr. Parkhurst and his bride are spending their honeymoon in an exclusive Hollywood apartment with the length of their stay in California indefinite.

The bride has made her home with the Parkhurst family since some years before the death of the first Mrs. Parkhurst.

Dr. Parkhurst retired from active work in the ministry some years ago.

He is the author of many works on religion, and vice and crime and occasionally writes newspaper and magazine articles.

NEW YORK, April 20.—Rev. Dr. Charles Henry Parkhurst, attracted national attention in the '90s by making sensational charges against Tammany Hall and the police, which resulted in the famous Lexow investigation by the state legislature.

As a result of the disclosures, showing a close connection between the police and criminals, Richard Croker, then chieftain of Tammany Hall, left for Europe where he later died. Tammany went down to defeat in the election that followed soon afterwards and Theodore Roosevelt was named police commissioner.

Dr. Parkhurst was born April 17, 1842. He is a graduate of Amherst. His first wife was Ellen Bodman of Williamstown, Mass.

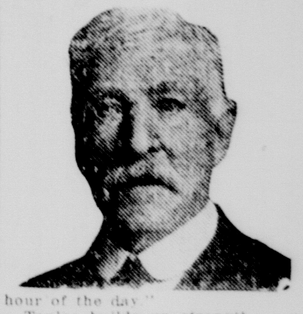

All the layman understands about economics is that a treasury surplus indicates a tax reduction just before an election.

The explosion caused by the other kind of powder comes when the wife finds it on your lapel.

As we understand the Chinese war aim, it is about a rod to one side of what is being shot at.
